Men of Galilee,
why are you standing there looking up at the sky?
This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way.

Volunteers Needed

St. Leo's The Gabriel Project ministry is in need of volunteers to help sort and organize donations of clothes and diapers. To donate your time, please contact Virginia Losoya at (210) 722-2984.

THE GABRIEL PROJECT

The health of our parishioners is very important to us, and with the guidance of the Archdiocese of San Antonio, we are taking several measures to slow the spread of COVID-19 in this community. We are humbly asking our parishioners to visit our parish website www.saintleoscatholicchurch.net to set up your online giving for your weekly or monthly tithes. We also accept envelopes during our office hours 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. Thank you to all our parishioners for your donations.

Reminder

Altar flowers and Tabernacle flowers are available to dedicate to your loved ones. Each flower arrangement is $75. Come to the office to reserve your week.

THE BREAKING OF BREAD

Our Easter season is close to ending when we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. The Bible contains three accounts of the Ascension of Jesus—the Gospels of Mark and Luke and the Acts of the Apostles (Acts). Today we hear the story in the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in Mark's Gospel. We also find one at the end of the Gospel of Luke (24:50-53). Luke wrote both a Gospel and Acts.

Luke begins his Acts by addressing it to Theophilus. Theophilus is a Greek name that means "friend of God" or "loved by God." You are a friend of God and God loves you. The stories in the book of Acts were meant for you to hear, too.

Later in the book of Acts Luke describes what the community of those who follow Jesus looked like. They listened to and followed the teaching of the apostles. They shared what they had and helped people in need. They gathered together for "the breaking of bread" and prayer, what we now call the Mass. These are actions that followers of Jesus continue to do today.

In the scroll, write a letter to Luke telling him how you are still practicing the actions he encouraged in the early Christians. Remember to be faithful to "the breaking of bread," that is, going to Mass, and to praying every day.

A cloud took him from their sight. Acts 1 : 9
