Tax-Aide is available for free tax preparation and electronic submittal starting February 15, 2021. Due to the corona virus, taxes will all be done by appointment only.

Beginning February 8th go to AARP.org to set up an appointment follow the link to Tax aide. Provide the basic information and select a site close to you based on your zip code. On appointment calendar select date, time, and site.

On your appointment date come to the site with all tax forms, picture ID and Social Security card. Your documents will be scanned and returned to you. Your scanned information will be used to prepare your return. You will be given a return appointment to sign and receive a hard, file copy of both Federal and State returns. Your return will be electrically submitted. For individuals without a computer a telephone number will be available at a later date and provided to the Council on Aging.
