

Self Help Support

Legal Aid, Bar Association, and Nonprofit Organizations - Useful Websites

Printer-friendly version

Contents

Court Basics
Money and Debt
Individual Rights

TexasLawHelp

Useful Information

Most websites produced by legal aid organizations, bar associations, or other non-profit organizations can be trusted to contain free and reliable legal information.

Helpful Services

These organizations may also be able to provide you with helpful services.

Please see each of the sections below for information on useful legal aid, bar association, and non-profit organization websites for each corresponding legal topic.

Important

The list below is intended to provide examples of useful websites. It is not an exhaustive listing. There may be additional websites, not listed here, able to help you.

Court Basics

- American Bar Association
 - The American Bar Association ("ABA") is a professional organization committed to "improving the legal profession and advancing the rule of law throughout the United States." They have a good deal of information on the legal system, you may find helpful.
 - Please click here to learn more.

- State Bar of Texas

- The State Bar of Texas is the second largest state bar association in the United States. Its mission is to "support the administration of the legal system, assure all citizens equal access to justice, foster high standards of ethical conduct for lawyers, enable its members to better serve their clients and the public, educate the public about the rule of law, and promote diversity in the administration of justice and the practice of law."
- Their website has useful information specifically designed for use by the public.
- Please click here for more information.

- Texas Young Lawyers Association
- The Texas Young Lawyers Association ("TYLA") is part of the State Bar of Texas. Their primary purpose is to "facilitate the administration of justice, foster respect for the law, and advance the role of the legal profession in serving the public."
- Their website has comprehensive information on the legal system, you may find useful when trying to solve your legal problems.
- Please click here to learn more.

- The People's Lawyer
- This website has information to help you understand your rights and responsibilities in the legal system. They also host a People's Law School event from time to time to provide useful information and help to Texans in need.
- Please click here for more information.

Money and Debt

- DisasterLegalAid.org
 - This website is THE national legal aid website for disaster relief. It is administered by Lone Star Legal Aid and contains information to help you prepare for, deal with and recover from natural disasters.
 - Please click here for more information.
- National Consumer Law Center
 - Since 1969 the mission of the non-profit National Consumer Law Center ("NCLC") has been to "work for consumer justice and economic security for low-income and other disadvantaged people, including older adults, in the U.S."
 - Their website has information that consumers may find helpful when dealing with common consumer law issues.
 - Please click here to learn more.
- Pension Rights Center
 - The Pension Rights Center ("PRC") is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to "protecting and promoting the retirement security of American workers, retirees, and their families."
 - Their website has useful information for those with questions or issues concerning pension and retirement.
 - Please click here for more information.

Related Articles:

Federal and State Agencies: Useful Websites

Legal Research: Steps to Follow

How to Select a Lawyer

Civil Litigation in Texas: The Basics in Three Phases

Justice 101: The Client's Guide to Texas Civil Litigation