

RACING CONDUCT, TECHNIQUE, AND RULES

Don't worry, we will show you all you need to know on practice day. But this info will help you know what to expect.

RACING CONDUCT

Conduct in the Boat: There should be no/minimal talking once your team is in the boat. The drummer and steers person must be able to communicate with the team and each other at all times, and all team members need to be able to hear the commands. Paddles straight up in the air if you need to draw attention to yourselves in case of emergency.

Buddy System: Make certain that each of your team members knows who is sitting beside them in case the boat swamps/capsizes, which is highly unlikely. Teammates will be responsible for each other's safety until rescue arrives. STAY WITH THE BOAT!

Life Jackets: Everyone must wear a life jacket during practice and on Race Day.

Drummer: The drummer should attend practice, if possible. He or she will assist in setting the timing for the team and can be an excellent source of motivation and inspiration during practices and on Race Day.

DRAGON BOAT PADDLING COMMANDS

Paddles Up: Be ready to paddle. All paddlers with paddles above the water (3-6inches from the surface) ready to enter the water.

Take It Away: Begin paddling.

Let It Run: Stop paddling and let the boat glide.

Hold the Boat or Stop the Boat: Place paddles in the water, with paddle pointed straight Down, blade submerged. It will bring the boat to a stop. If you hear the command, "Hold hard," quickly put your paddle straight down and then back it up one stroke.

Back It Down: Paddle backwards.

Draw (left or right side): Initiates a turn using draw strokes by the designated paddlers. Can also be used to get the boat closer to something, a dock, for example.

Stabilize the Boat: Place your paddle blade on top of the water and hold it there. This stabilizes the boat. It is needed when anyone stands up in the boat to change position, etc.

Note: Your coach/steerer will brief you about these commands before your practice. In the boat, when the coach is talking, please continue to paddle and listen. Never stop paddling unless your coach says, "Let it run."
