Lollapalooza

When we talk about reaching young people...Voter Services hit it out of the park with their Voter Registration awareness event at the Geneva Train Station last week. If you missed it, Voter Services met people going to Lollapalooza Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday mornings. Each day members handed out Voter Registration cards with info on registering to vote and finding candidate info. Go Voter Services Team!

League of Women Voters members are invited to participate in the 2024 State Assembly. Illinois boasts more than 40 Leagues! The State Assembly allows us to come together to plan and coordinate our work for November 2024 elections as well as the coming year.

The State Assembly is a great opportunity to connect and focus on crucial actions to take in the coming months.

Registration is Required - use the graphic to register

Detainee Voter Registration

Are you interested in registering voters at the Kane County Jail? CKK partners with the Kane County Sheriff to make sure that detainees retain their right to vote.

Interested League members should sign-up ASAP. Background checks and training will be required to participate.
