Empowering Voters Defending Democracy

The LWV affirms the right of individuals to participate in peaceful protest. After all, one of our tenets is that every person's voice is heard. And let's not forget, many of our members were on the front line protesting the United States' participation in Vietnam as well as advocating for the end of Apartheid.

"Protests are an effective tool for amplifying the voices of the people and inspiring action. When we use the act of protest together with the power of our vote, we can create meaningful and lasting change." -LWVUS

Volunteer Fair - Batavia Public Library

A hearty thank you to all of the CKC members who volunteered their time last Thursday to "man" the volunteer fair at the Batavia Public Library. We had 12 leaguers volunteer to man either the voter registration table or the League information table.

We registered 6 young people as new voters; had 1 address change; and looked up several people who were unsure if they were registered. They all were!

There were 34 non profit groups present. We were a hit with our Trivia Wheel. Several people filled out requests for more info/to be contacted about the League. We received very positive feedback.

Guest Speaker: Joe Zeman, Social Studies teacher at West Chicago High School currently teaching American History, Criminal Justice, and Sociology.

Mr. Zeman received a B.A. in History from Elmhurst College and recently earned an M.A. in History from Roosevelt University.

Mr. Zeman's presentation explores how the societal changes in the United States during the early twentieth-century influenced the origins of The League of Women Voters. By analyzing shifting ideologies regarding gender and citizenship, this lecture explains the nature of the organization's non-partisanship.

The history presented encourages us to reconsider the ways the League of Women Voters is relevant today as well as rethink its role as a conduit for suffragist political thought in American society.

In collaboration with World Relief, the Migrant Committee is asking for local league participation in assembling "Welcome Kits". Each of the kits would have 4 gift cards of $50 each from Aldi, Target, Walmart and a gas station.

Watch your email for specific requests to help support the building of our "Welcome Kit".
