Featured Member - Pat Engel

Pat and Bob Engel, both LWVCKC members, have opened their inviting home and garden for several summer and winter social events.

They have lived in the same house in Geneva for 48 years and their two grand kids are proud 3rd generation Genevans. With an accounting background, Pat serves as our estimable treasurer. Her passion in the League is protecting our democracy and is excited to engage our membership in new ways.

Pat has shared her talents and passions by serving on boards of director for a number of community organizations. Her favorite activities include travel & reading as well as gardening at home and elsewhere as a Master Gardener.

Do you know someone who is passionate about Democracy? Voting Rights/Education? Invite them to join us this week for cocktails or coffee. We love meeting and getting to know like-minded people.
