Featured Member - Howard Miller

Meet one of our league Directors, Howard Miller. Howard is a Vietnam Era Veteran having served in the US Navy. Civic involvement is just part of Howard.

He and his wife, Sandy have been members of LWVCKC for over a year and they have jumped in with both feet! Former educators, Howard is also a representative with the state League in the area of Gun Violence Prevention as well as the Brady Kane & DeKalb Counties chapter chair.

Howard continually volunteers at voter registration events as a long-time Deputy Registrar with Kane County.

Voter Registration Opportunities

Our Voter Services team is working hard to provide opportunities to members of our community by bringing voter registration to them. If you're able to register voters, visit our SignUp Genius page for a list of upcoming dates, times, & locations
