

The Voter

Aug 14

2023

Empowering
Voters
Democracy

CONGRATULATIONS to our Voter Services Team: they registered 181 voters at St. Charles East HS.

This week's voter focuses on Voter Registrar Training, effective communication with our County Board and shares information about the upcoming Civic Awareness Series (CAS) as well as a fundraising night at B.A.S.H.

Featured Member - Heidi DeMarco

Heidi DeMarco is our point person for Communications having just officially accepted a role as Director with the Central Kane County League.

Heidi and her family reside in Geneva. You've probably seen her around at the schools or in the community as she is one very active woman.

Heidi is passionate about defending our democracy, a tenant of the League of Women Voters, and she's highly involved in voter registration and education. One conversation with her and you'll find yourself signing up right next to her advocating for voter rights and __ justice.

As our communication director, Heidi has developed a form where you can submit info for posting on our social media and a Flickr account to add photos. If you see Heidi out - give her a big thanks.

Voter Registration Opportunities

Our Voter Services team is working hard to provide on-going opportunities to members of our community by bringing voter registration to them. If you're able to register voters, visit our SignUp Genius page for a list of upcoming dates, times, & locations
