

Case Study

Paul Jackson
Head of UK Office

Company Bio

Founded in 2023
Based in Milton Keynes and Wuyang, China
B2B supplier of footwear and accessories to UK retailers.

The Challenge

As a new business, we had limited experience with GDPR and data protection practices. We wanted to ensure we were handling personal data responsibly and put the right policies and processes in place as the business grows.

Why Us

We chose RA Data Protection for their fast response, personal approach and quick turnaround. As a new business we were unsure what to expect, but we were extremely pleased with the support and results delivered.

The Process

The process was easy, friendly and reliable. RA Data Protection helped us upgrade our policies and provided clear guidance and ongoing advice on how to handle personal data properly within the business.

The Results

As a result, we improved our internal systems and significantly increased awareness of data protection across the business. The team now has a much clearer understanding of their responsibilities when handling personal data.

We would 100% recommend RA Data Protection to any business looking for practical GDPR support and advice.
