

PASTOR SHIPHRAH FEPULEA'I, Speaker

Shiphrah Fepulea'i, or "Pastor Shiph" as her church members know her, comes from a sturdy stock of Well Women. Her mother taught Pastor Shiph to be a lifelong learner at the feet of Jesus and enjoy being made well there. Her grandmother exemplified that formal schooling, or the lack of it, doesn't have to get in the way of one's education and growth in the Word of God.

Although Pastor Shiph did not anticipate becoming a pastor, her walk with Jesus -- at His feet and by His Word -- led her down this fulfilling path. She has received her Master of Divinity from the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University and is currently a Doctoral Candidate there. She began full time pastoral ministry in Southeastern California Conference 13 years ago, serving at Campus Hill Church in Loma Linda over the past ten years.

Through her many experiences in women's ministries at Campus Hill Church, Pastor Shiph was inspired to speak about Jesus who cares for women like you.

MELODY ANDERSON, Guest Artist

Melody is a daughter of the Most High King who loves to give Him glory through song. She started singing at age five and has enjoyed singing and writing music ever since. She has sung in choirs and groups in churches and schools throughout the years. She has directed choirs and leads praise teams. She also has a few collections of her own original songs that she hopes to record soon.

Melody works as a Radiologic Technologist in Sacramento, CA. Her home church is Placerville SDA Church. On the weekends, she enjoys bringing special music and ministering wherever God calls her.
