BE IT ENACTED, by the United States, in Congress assembled THE FOREIGN SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY ACT OF 2014 IS HEREBY ESTABLISHED, ACCEPTED AND ACKNOWLEDGED on the 19th day of February, 2014,

REGULATIONS OF THE STATUTE ENACTED

1. The original States have the authority to sign a letter of acceptance and acknowledgment of the Act through the Governor of each state forming a New Compact Agreement with the original Confederacy.
2. The states that were formed by the Northwest Ordinance have the authority to sign a letter of acceptance and acknowledgment of the Act through the Governor of each state forming a New Compact Agreement with the original Confederacy.

Upon each letter of acceptance and acknowledgment placed into the repository of the ITUSA-C, by operation of law, the foreign charitable trust is required to abate itself back to the District of Columbia, wherein its freedom is restricted by the Bill of Rights peace compact agreement by and between the Confederacy and the Republic. However, the State of New Columbia will be accepted as an equal party to this compact agreement and is required to accept and acknowledge this Act like any other State.

HISTORICAL NOTES

Although the IRS Code is used as the basis for the so called income tax, the personal income tax does not derive its authority from the 16th Amendment, Brushaber v. Union Pacific RR or any other constitutional or federal provision, as those authorities fell with the loss of our national money standard in 1933. Since 1933, the people have formed a new unincorporated United States in trust by their silence in accepting the loss of their ability for paying their debts at law. In other words, the suspension of our national money standard created a void in the law. Consequently, a resulting or implied trust rushed in to fill the void. In a resulting or implied trust, there are not terms of how and who is to administer the terms of the trust, therefore you cannot put the blame on anyone besides the people for letting the trust be established. "The United States Government may be the trustee of a charitable trust," Russell v. Allen, 107 U.S 163; 27 L.Ed. 397, and further; The United States or a state has capacity to take and hold property upon a charitable trust, but in absence of a statute otherwise providing, the charitable trust is unenforceable against the United States or a state.”

In other words, the code does not define who is required to file and what the terms are, but when you use the IRS Code as your argument, you admit to conveying your estate to the public trust, thus all your arguments have little or no merit. It then is a constant battle finding niches in the code which the IRS eventually overcomes and it comes down to how much you owe and when you are going to pay. In the mean time, you cannot own anything because they put a lien on it and it is hell getting rid of the lien.

You must also remember that you are also considered a beneficiary to the trust and as such, unjust enrichment comes into play. Article IV, Section 3 of the Constitution states: "New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States, without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress." Article IV, Sec. 3 clearly states that in order to establish new incorporated States under the Constitution, the legislatures and Congress must follow the Constitutional rules. But, being there is no prohibition under Article IV, Sec. 3 or any other provisions of the Constitution to prohibit the people from forming an association of new unincorporated states, and just being there is no charter of incorporation of the new states and just what its duties are, i.e., its intents and purposes, a resulting implied charitable trust is formed by operation of law.

As a result of the foregoing, when you go into court, the judge constructs a trust whereby he takes judicial notice [of the presumption that you are a beneficiary of the trust and the presumption is the fact until rebutted with evidence] and invokes unjust enrichment on your part. Consequently there is no Constitutional Law, only the conscience of the masses in the trust governed by courts of equity ‘whereby all property, real and personal are held in common to everybody in the trust, i.e., every person re-insures each others debts and responsibility, in limited liability. In other words, by operation of law, the people have formed new unincorporated states that operate outside the Constitution under their right to contract and convey their property as a gift in trust, thereby creating relative rights instead of absolute rights. As stated earlier, being there is no charter of incorporation and just what its duties and jurisdiction consist of, this public trust of unincorporated states reverts back to the Articles of Confederation because, under the Articles, taxation and commerce were and are under the control of the states and outside the control of the federal Government.

Thus, the IRS Code is not under control of Congress’ general powers, but rather its authority lies under local law which is state law under the Erie RR doctrine. The Articles were in force from March 1781 to March 1789. They were never abolished, but discredited by 1786, thus not being incorporated into the Constitution. Most authorities of that time agree that had it not been for the Articles of Confederation, our Constitutional Republic would not have survived, but taxation and commerce being under control of the states created major problems as we are witnessing today under local law. Erie held that the law of the state shall apply in the absence of the Constitution or Acts of Congress. First Erie does not say the incorporated State, but the unincorporated state, Secondly, Erie does not differentiate between foreign or domestic commerce, nor does it differentiate between local or general Acts of Congress. I go ballistic when I hear folks say it’s the incorporated States that are doing us in. Go to your state constitution and check to see if the state boundary lines are there, OH! You say, they are not there. Well then, how can the incorporated State or States be doing us in when there is no boundary Lines drawn between the various general powers over the people; and the U.S. Supreme Court has stated this many times over.

The purpose of the personal income tax is to tax those who want government acting under local law (public policy) to take care of them, which unfortunately is what most of the people want and expect and therein lies the major problem. Anyhow, silence is consent, therefore you are required to file tax returns and share your wealth with the undesirables, that is, unless you use the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, 28 USC 1502-1611, passed in 1976 in order to offer to those who are dissatisfied with public policy, a statutory remedy to the Constitution under Article III. Your access to the Constitution runs directly through the FSIA in every area in dealing with government, federal, state, or local.

In short, the FSIA codified the era of Swift v. Tyson, 16 Peters 1 (1842-1938) whereby a jury trial can now be demanded, if desired, in State court on any statutory issue covered by the FSIA against federal, state, or local government. Congress specifically stated that the FSIA must be interpreted, by statutory remedy in an Article III court regardless of the citizenship of the plaintiff under international law outside of the realm of equity, Erie, Title 42, and other public policy. FSIA also, waives sovereign immunity for commercial activities of state and federal governments which consists of about 90% of government activity. In summation, arguing the Internal Revenue Code is an effort in futility.

COMMENTS FROM THE ASSEMBLY:

1: The Constitution spoken of in the Historical Notes was never properly ratified. The Constitutional Convention, once concluded, never went back to the United States, in Congress assembled to ratify the changes, therefore, there was a split in the country where George Washington broke chain of title to all property. Meanwhile, the original Confederacy maintained title to all property. The federalists and loyalists have consistently acted in the capacity of power of attorney for the Confederacy without any liability for the federalist's and loyalists damages caused against the Confederacy. The split has been in place ever since which has caused a perpetual war and turmoil. The mission of the current Confederacy is to resolve the conflicts created by the fore fathers and put an end to these conflicts by forming a United Nations Continental Congress of America, wherein all of Americas Nations and States may come together to settle International Conflicts while all are abiding by one charter.
