The Declaration of Independence, 1776, nunc pro tunc, as amended 12-03-2012

We, the people for The United States of America, 1781, a Confederacy form of Government, brought forward to the present time, hereby declare Independence from the Council of Nicea, held in 325 A.D. all its creeds, decisions, decrees, bills, debt creation, control and deception through SERAPIS CHRISTUS and all of its agency and intermediary services between the people and the Most High, One True Source, their Maker.

We, the people for The United States of America, hereby declare Independence from any and all Councils convened from generation to generation, created by the Roman Catholic Government, name given Holy See and its laws, We, the people declare independence.

We, the people for The United States of America, hereby declare Independence from any and all Trusts, organizations, corporations, or any other body politic, directly or indirectly created by the Roman Catholic Government or any other government created by the Roman Catholic Government, including but not limited to the New World Order and all Nations within the United Nations and its Resolutions or Non-Member Nations.

We, the people for The United States of America hereby declare Independence from any presumed or assumed power of attorney, political representation, authority over, or any express or implied conversion authority over intent, or any claim against the Mind, Body and Soul of any of We, the people for The United States of America.

We, the people embrace the Confederacy form of Government of The United States of America, once abandoned and claimed without any encumbrances, debt or servitude agreements attached thereto.

Reciprocity

We, the people for The United States of America accept and acknowledge the Sovereign of the reign of the heavens as a perfect example of a Government, assembled in His name of, by and for the people, its territorial integrity, precedence of its formation, and interpretation of its laws.

We, the people for The United States of America accept and acknowledge that our covenant of the gentiles originates from the reign of the heavens, outside any other Government(s) in and of the World.

We, the people shall stand as witnesses to the murder of the reign of the heavens Head of State by Augustus Caesar (63 B.C.-14 A.D.); First Emperor of Rome.

We, the people for The United States of America shall treat all subjects, citizens, Nationals, residents and all other forms of status within and or under the Roman Catholic Government or any other Government with dignity, respect, equal rights, privileges and immunities as any of the people for The United States of America or the reign of the heavens.

Declaration of Peace

We, the people for The United States of America embrace the liability and responsibility of the survey of its metes and bounds, its rural free delivery routes and general post office, the identity of its people, its economy, its crime, its independent part of the original Union and all other sufferance that accompanies Independence with separate and equal station.

We, the people for The United States of America forgive any trespass or deception that was caused by the Council of Nicea, held and started in 325 A.D., brought forward to the present time and into the future.

We, the people for The United States of America declare that we are at peace with the Roman Catholic Government or any other government created by the Roman Catholic Government and wish no curses or famine upon said Government. The growth of the numbers of the people of The United States of America is not to be interpreted as passive aggression by the people for The United States of America against the Roman Catholic Government head quartered in Vatican City, its Crown or its U.S.

We, the people for The United States of America declare that reciprocity shall be sought out with any and all States of the Union and shall share territory in peace through trade, reciprocity, honor and respect.

We, the people for The United States of America declare Independence in the name of Yahweh, assembled in the name of the Sovereign of the reign of the heavens on the 3rd day of December, 2012.

We, the people for The United States of America,
