Tennessee Hold'Em 223 : Multi Table Championship Tournament Rules

Also Known as: "Tennessee Riverboat" - the Championship Variant.

Betting : 5 Rounds of Progressive Limit Betting

- 1st Card Distribution: 2 personal cards for each player (as in Texas Hold'Em)
- Betting Round 1 : Max bet or raise = 1 x BB, 1 aggressive action (bet or raise) allowed per player.
- 2nd Card Distribution: LAUNCH : 2 community cards are dealt.
- Betting Round 2 : Max bet or raise = 2 x BB, 2 aggressive actions (bet or raise) allowed per player.
- 3rd Card Distribution: BOAT : 3 more personal cards for each player (each remaining player now holds 5 personal cards)
- Betting Round 3 : Max bet or raise = 3 x BB, 3 aggressive actions (bet or raise) allowed per TABLE.
- The Dealer calls "Men Overboard"! or says, "You may discard now!"

Players must decide whether they want to discard 2, 1, or no cards. Players discarding 2 cards may use the TURN and RIVER in their highest ranking poker hand, the best 5 of 7 allowed cards.

Players choosing to hold 4 in their BOAT, discarding 1 card, get NO RIVER.

Players who decide to hold all 5 hole cards, get NO TURN and NO RIVER. The dealer places a NO RIVER Disc in front of any player discarding only 1 card, both a NO TURN & NO RIVER Disc in front of any player who does not wish to discard.

Note 1: Players place their discards in front of their seating position face down until all players have either discarded or indicated that they want to discard no cards.

Note 2: In online versions, discards are positioned automatically face down, then revealed, and automatically removed after the TURN.

When discarding is finished, the dealer reveals each player's discards, providing valuable insights into opponents' strategies, while requiring players to pay close attention, observing which cards opponents have discarded, before recalculating changing probabilities...

Optional: Dealer may choose to instruct players to "REVEAL"! and to show their own discards.

Dealer Collects the discards and displays them together by fanning them.

Discards are removed immediately after the next card distribution (the TURN).
