

Empowerment Through Inclusive Innovation

At BDPA Cleveland, we champion inclusive innovation as a catalyst for empowerment—providing students, professionals, and communities with access to transformative experiences in STEM, AI, workforce development, and entrepreneurship. Through your sponsorship, we are investing in people and communities to drive economic growth and mobility. Together, we’re building pathways that turn potential into progress and vision into results.

Thank you for considering how your support can fuel real, lasting impact.

Sponsor Benefit Tiers

Each sponsorship tier offers meaningful engagement, brand visibility, and the opportunity to invest in programs that develop talent, spark innovation, and strengthen local economies.
