

Financial Operations and Funding Team

The Financial Operations and Funding team of the BDPA organization is responsible for managing the financial health and sustainability of the organization. This team oversees all financial activities, including budgeting, accounting, and financial reporting, ensuring transparency and compliance with regulatory standards. It also spearheads efforts to secure funding through grants, sponsorships, donations, and other revenue-generating initiatives. By implementing effective financial strategies and maintaining robust financial controls, the Financial Operations and Funding team supports BDPA's mission and goals, enabling the organization to continue providing valuable resources and opportunities to its members.

To join the Financial Operations and Funding team, or for more information, contact Crystal Farmer, Vice President of Finance, at cfarmer@bdpacleveland.com, or at 440-223-2155.

