

Nancy Mello, Animal Communicator

Should you hire an animal communicator when your pet is lost?

It can be daunting when you lose your pet. Deciding to hire a pet communicator during a vulnerable time can be a difficult one. Here are some questions you should ask before booking a session.

About Nancy

Nancy Mello has found 40 animals since March 2020 including 1 hamster, 1 mini mule, and 1 nigerian dwarf goat. She has helped find pets in five countries and across the United States and Canada.

Book a session:
nancymello.com

What questions to ask when hiring an animal communicator to help with a lost pet.

How many animals have you found?

Will you tell me if my pet is passed?

What is the average length it takes to find an animal?

Will I need multiple sessions to find my pet?

Will I be able to contact you outside of our session to ask questions?

How do I get in touch with you to ask you questions outside of the reading?

What is your average response time to emails/text/phone?

Can I book a same day session?

Do you have references/reviews of your service?