Funeral Cremation Instructions

(Note:Information from this article comes from The Catholic Cemeteries of Chicago)

In recent times, the practice of cremation has notably increased in many countries. Thus, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has deemed it necessary to set out norms for the conservation of cremated remains.

Simply put, cremated remains are not to be scattered, divided, kept in homes, or made into jewelry. The Church holds to the tradition of burying remains, because of what we believe about the Resurrection - that one day, Christ will return in glory and our bodies and souls will be reunited and will be remade on that last day, sharing the Glory of the Risen Christ. Because of this, it is inconsistent with this belief to scatter the cremated remains of our deceased (into the air, on the ground, or in bodies of water) or to divide them, or to keep them in homes.

The Church teaches that the ashes of the faithful must be laid to rest in a sacred place, that is, in a cemetery or, in certain cases, in a church or an area, which has been set aside for this purpose. From the earliest times, Christians have desired that the faithful departed become the objects of the Christian community's prayers and remembrance. Their tombs have become places of prayer, remembrance and reflection. The family home is certainly a place where the love of God dwells, however the sacred ground of a cemetery is perpetual (homes are bought and sold). It is not enough for us to simply have a personal relationship with Jesus as our savior. Our faith is a communal faith; we rely upon the prayers of others. Interment in a Catholic Cemetery assures of the prayers of others until that day when we are together again in God's Kingdom.

Our faith teaches us the importance of the sanctity of the body. Keeping cremated remains intact is a sign of respect for the physical body that was so important in life. We believe that the body is a gift from God, a temple where the Holy Spirit dwells. To be consistent in this belief, the body should be treated with the dignity and respect that can only come with proper burial.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

NEW BEGINNINGS

YEAH! YIPPEE! PRAISE GOD OUR CHURCHES ARE OPEN WITH A FUTURE OF ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES...

As we say WELCOME Back to the house of our Lord, we are also saying goodbye to two Wonderful, Caring, Thoughtful people, entering their well-deserved retirements.

The first has kept the wheels turning in our parish, through 6-8 Pastors. As they have come and gone, Jane Nischan-Pozen rolled with all the changes, and transitioned (trained) them all seamlessly. Jane, your love for our Lord, your kindness at every level, and your never-ending patience will long be remembered. Thank you, Jane!

The other is Deacon Mark Buckley, who has been feeding young minds, some from Baptism right through to Confirmation. He has helped many catechumens enter the church and has been enlightening parishioners with "CHATS" and DISCUSSIONS, during this pandemic. Going forward, he will be serving our Lord, side by side with our priests. He will be sorely missed as Director of Religious Education; however, he will remain as one of OLL's treasured deacons. Thank you, Deacon Mark!

DEACON CHRISTOPHER WEILAND "TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH"

On July 7th at 6:30 at OLL St. Peter Church, we are happy to welcome Deacon Mark's classmate, Deacon Christopher, from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Glenview, IL to "CHAT" with us about "practical aspects of everyday evangelization." COME FIND OUT HOW YOU MIGHT DRAW PEOPLE TO OUR WONDERFUL FAITH.

Scrapbook Corner for Kids

Dear Parents and students,

As we begin the summer, I wanted to update all on plans for the fall 2021. The person we hired for the new position for the coming year, has let Fr. George know that she had to withdraw her name from the position. This means that we will need to begin the job search for this coming fall again. I will continue to help the parish out by working past my retirement date, to facilitate registrations and plans for fall 2021 to spring 2022., We hope to find a qualified person to begin later in the summer. Just a reminder that the Archdiocese has mandated that we use the St. Bede school for all classes for Our Lady of the Lakes classes so that the property (St. Peter school building) can be sold or leased to provide income for the parish. We will keep you all informed on our search for a new director and registration forms for the fall. Please keep the search in your prayers this summer.

Deacon Mark

A good prayer to learn over the summer.

Sacramental Policies

In accordance with the policies of the Archdiocese of Chicago it is required that all children have a minimum of two continuous years of preparation before receiving a sacrament. Here at Our Lady Of The Lakes, that means those seeking Reconciliation and First Communion are asked to attend both First and Second Grade classes in either our school or religious education programs. Those seeking Confirmation are likewise asked to attend both seventh and eighth grade before receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. For more details, please call the Religious Education office at 847-587-2301.

Saint Bede Tuition Assistance Program

Each dollar that is donated to the Saint Bede Tuition Assistance Program is only used for that purpose. That money is awarded to families who qualify for partial scholarships through a formal application process. This makes it financially possible for talented young people of Our Lady of the Lakes Parish to attend Saint Bede School.

St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry at St. Bede Church

St. Vincent de Paul Community Dinners are cancelled until further notice.

If you know of any individual, family or friend who is in need of food, please have them contact the St. Bede Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 224-360-2562. All information is kept confidential. Also, we welcome them to attend our community dinner in Coleman Hall (church basement) on the 3rd Sunday of every month. The doors open at 3:30pm and the dinner is from 4:00 - 5:00pm.

Our Current Food Pantry needs: Beef Vegetable Soup, Canned Corn, Instant Potatoes, and Rice a Roni. Thank you! During these difficult times, we appreciate those who have mailed in your church contributions, or contribute through GiveCentral, our electronic giving platform. As Mother Angelica, foundress of EWTN, used to say, "Please don't forget to keep us between your gas and electric bill."

If you are interested in Electronic Giving, please contact Mike Hogan at 847-587-2251, or mrhogan@ourladylakesparish.org or follow the directions below...

We invite our parishioners to utilize our e-giving system which can be accessed at www.givecentral.org. Once at the site, on the upper right side is a button that reads, "Find your Charity," please press and a search box will appear in the center of the page. Please type in St. Bede Ingleside or St. Peter Antioch, as either option will enable you to donate to Our Lady of the Lakes Parish. It will bring you to another page which lists a couple of areas of need, please click on your choice and it will step you through the process of donating. There are options to do a one-time payment or to set up a series of donations. We hope you can help with a one-time gift, but also hope you see the benefit of setting up a series of automatic donations. Many of our parishioners use Give Central because the predictable nature of the donations helps in managing their household budgets. You may use a credit card or bank account. If you opt for an ongoing donation, you do have an option to modify it by accessing the Give Central site. I hope you can help, as we rely on the weekly collections to match the operating expenses the parish faces each week. Thank you.

Housing and shelter is offered by the Samaritan House. This location caters to homeless women and children in Lake County. So short term housing is offered, as well as support and case management to help people end the cycle of homelessness. Once someone is stable, Catholic Charities will help facilitate longer term housing placement assistance as well as provide skills training. ## Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As always on Sundays in Ordinary Time, the Old Testament reading illumines today's Gospel. In the longer form, Jesus performs two healings; and the Book of Wisdom proclaims our God the God of life, who "fashioned all things that they might have being" and formed human beings in "the image of his own nature," to be "imperishable" (Wisdom 1:14; 2:23). People of faith, therefore, choose to live God's "undying justice (righteousness)" (1:15) in this mortal life, thus beginning, even now, the undying life for which we were created. To choose otherwise is to choose the other side: the devil and death (2:25). Mark presents the two healings as a story within a story, a "story sandwich," a literary device that reinforces his message for those who originally would have heard, not read, the story. Mark wants to emphasize an essential truth of his Gospel: that Jesus does not perform miracles to compel faith, but rather that faith precedes healing.

JUST HAVE FAITH

Jairus' daughter is the child of an important, privileged man, who publicly seeks out Jesus and loudly proclaims—and demonstrates—his faith, "falling at Jesus' feet and pleading earnestly with him" (5:22–23). The anonymous woman virtually "sneaks up behind" Jesus and, though clearly filled with faith, keeps that faith to herself until Jesus draws "the whole truth" out of her after her cure (5:27–28, 33). All the more impressive, then, that Jesus delays his healing of the seemingly "more important" and younger woman for the unknown, truly marginalized older woman. Returning to the "domestic church," so to speak, of Jairus' house from the public setting of the older woman's cure, Mark tells us that Jairus' daughter has died. In the face of a hopelessness even more definitive than that of the hemorrhaging woman, people tell Jairus "why trouble the teacher any longer?" (5:35). But Jesus does not consider his response to Jairus' faith hopeless or a bother: "Do not be afraid; just have faith" (5:36). Despite death's apparent triumph at Jairus' home, Jesus grasps the child's hand—even though the law prohibited touching the dead—and bids her, "Talitha koum—Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (5:41).

WHY BOTHER?

So Mark seems to be asking us: Like Jairus on his way home or like the woman after twelve years, will we wonder, why bother? Or keep walking in faith with Jesus? Is a silent touch of Jesus' garment—a quiet prayer of faith—enough for us? In the face of apparent hopelessness, will we choose faith over despair despite the ridicule of the crowd, remembering that Jesus has grasped us by the hand in baptism and commanded us to rise? Note the Gospel's ending: after bidding Jairus' daughter rise, Jesus commands that she be given something to eat (5:43). So, too, Jesus invites us now to feast at his eucharistic sacrifice and banquet!

Today's Readings: Wis 1:13–15; 2:23–24; Ps 30:2, 4–6, 11–13; 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13–15; Mk 5:21–43 [5:21–24, 35b–43]

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul June 29th

O holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, I choose you this day and forever to be my special patrons and advocates; thee, Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles, because thou art the Rock, upon which Almighty God hath built His Church; thee, Saint Paul, because thou wast fore-chosen by God as the Vessel of election and the Preacher of truth in the whole world.

Obtain for me, I pray you, lively faith, firm hope, and burning love; complete detachment from myself, contempt of the world, patience in adversity, humility in prosperity, attention in prayer, purity of heart, a right intention in all my works, diligence in fulfilling the duties of my state of life, constancy in my resolutions, resignation to the will of God and perseverance in the grace of God even unto death; that so, by means of your intercession and your glorious merits, I may be able to overcome the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and may be made worthy to appear before the chief and eternal Shepherd of souls, Jesus Christ, Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth for endless ages, to enjoy His presence and love Him forever. Amen.
