Adoring Angels

(Adapted from an article from Paul Turner, LTP Press)

Some Tabernacles in Catholic churches are decorated with images of two angels. Some churches position two statues of angels turned toward the tabernacle in attitudes of prayer.

These images indicate a connection between the tabernacle in church and the Old Testament accounts of the Ark of the Covenant. The ark contained the presence of God represented by three important manifestations: the stone tablets on which were written the commandments, the rod of Aaron, and some of the manna from the desert. The ark was a portable box that the Israelites carried from place to place, so that the presence of God would remain in their midst. According to Exodus 25:22, images of two angels adorned the top of the ark.

In Catholic churches, the tabernacle is the place to store Consecrated Hosts. The Body of Jesus is reserved for Communion to the sick, for adoration, or for sharing in Communion at Mass when an insufficient amount of bread is consecrated.

Jesus called himself the true bread that came down from heaven (John 6:58), alluding to the story of the manna. Just as the manna provided sustenance for the Israelites on their wanderings, so Christ, our Bread of Life, sustains us on our pilgrimage toward heaven. The Israelites kept some manna in a box, and Catholics reserves the Blessed Sacrament in a box. To draw the connection between the tabernacle and the Ark of the Covenant, many churches adorn the tabernacle or its area with images of adoring angels. They show that God's plan from long ago is realized today. These angels remind believers that Jesus Christ is the presence of God, who takes up a dwelling in our midst.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. George

Lake County Illinois Catholic Charities assistance programs

If you need help in Lake County Illinois, then Catholic Charities is one of the leading organizations to contact. They provide direct emergency assistance, referrals, and partner with non-profits and companies such as North Shore Gas. Social workers from Catholic Charities will advocate on your behalf, provide case management, and offer direct financial assistance if it is available.

Heating bill assistance is offered from the Heartship Program. Catholic Charities may have funds that can help North Shore Gas customers whose heating service has been shut off. Various hardship conditions need to be met, as well as income guidelines are in place. Call the agency at 847-782-4100 in order to apply for Heartship.

Housing and shelter is offered by the Samaritan House. This location caters to homeless women and children in Lake County. So short term housing is offered, as well as support and case management to help people end the cycle of homelessness. Once someone is stable, Catholic Charities will help facilitate longer term housing placement assistance as well as provide skills training. The goal is to also help someone find a job so they can pay the rent on their own in the future.

Some of the case management services provided by Samaritan House include employment and budget counseling, skills education, life skills development, and much more. Referrals are provided for other community resources as well as state of Illinois and federal government public assistance programs. 847.782.4142

Rapid Re-housing Program, Housing Counseling and Case Management - This Catholic Charity program helps families locate and secure affordable, safe, and quality housing. Get assistance with developing workable budgets, communicating with prospective landlords, maintaining and paying for the housing, and get information on tenant's and homeowner rights and responsibilities. Foreclosure prevention and counseling may be provided too.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We return to Ordinary Time this Sunday, and with this new season we focus on what it means to be a person who is called by God for some definite purpose. Elisha recognized God's call in Elijah's greeting and prepared immediately to follow. The people who came to Jesus seemed ready to follow, yet each had reasons to linger behind. As people who are given the freedom to follow or to stay behind, we must ask ourselves what we are ready to do for the sake of Christ and the call of the gospel. What are you called to do at this time in your life? Are you prepared to leave behind the things that get in the way of living as a Christian?

FOLLOW

What does it mean to follow Jesus? The Gospels show us that Jesus called each person individually, recognizing the things that stood in the way for each. He looked into the person's heart and saw the true desires of the person standing before him. Each of us experiences Christ's call uniquely as the persons we are. For some, following requires us to take stock of our lives and let go of the obstacles that keep us from the way of true discipleship. For others, the call may lead us to deepen the way that faith directs our lives, with more intentional time in prayer, regular participation in Mass, renewed attention to family, involvement in our parish, or new acts of service.

BE READY

It is easy to say we want to follow Jesus, yet most of us feel competing desires that stand in the way of discipleship. We may be distracted by the constant swirl of activity so prevalent in our surrounding culture; we might be lured by worldly wealth and the status that often accompanies it; we may simply be comfortable with the way things are and find it difficult to risk changing anything. In today's Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we must stop putting off making the changes that will bring us closer to him and to God's way of life. We must trust in the Lord, knowing that what he most deeply desires is that we be close to him. If you encountered Jesus today and said you were ready to follow him, what would he see in your heart, what obstacles or hesitations would he perceive? Go to Jesus in prayer this day. Listen to him say, "Follow me." Prayerfully place your life in the Lord's hands and be ready to follow.

We invite our parishioners to utilize our e-giving system which can be accessed at www.givecentral.org. Once at the site, on the upper right side is a button that reads, "Find your Charity," please press and a search box will appear in the center of the page. Please type in St. Bede Ingleside or St. Peter Antioch, as either option will enable you to donate to Our Lady of the Lakes Parish. It will bring you to another page which lists a couple of areas of need, please click on your choice and it will step you through the process of donating. There are options to do a one-time payment or to set up a series of donations. We hope you can help with a one-time gift, but also hope you see the benefit of setting up a series of automatic donations. Many of our parishioners use Give Central because the predictable nature of the donations helps in managing their household budgets. You may use a credit card or bank account. If you opt for an ongoing donation, you do have an option to modify it by accessing the Give Central site. I hope you can help, as we rely on the weekly collections to match the operating expenses the parish faces each week. Thank you.

Laws of Love

St. Paul has a unique vision of freedom. We often think that freedom means I can do what I want without interference from an outside source, such as a bureaucracy or a dictator. For most Americans, it means being able to take care of myself and my family, hopefully without having to pay too much in taxes. We usually associate that with the "pursuit of happiness" without thinking too much about what happiness is. What makes Paul's idea unique is that his vision of happiness means serving one another in love. For Paul, freedom is not so much being free from oppression as being free to love and serve those around us.

What would stop us from loving others? It could be fear: "I'm not sure I would be able to do any good. I'm afraid of going into a bad neighborhood to help the homeless. I fear that if I were more generous to the poor (church, Red Cross, life issues, etc.), I would not have enough for my family." Or it could be attachment to possessions or even to our family--the man in the Gospel wasn't free to follow Jesus because he thought it meant leaving his family behind.

Paul talks about another kind of freedom when he says that following the Spirit means freedom from the Law (Galatians 5:18). He was not talking about ignoring the speed limit or pirating DVDs. He meant people who were obsessed with keeping all the laws and customs that were part of the Jewish tradition. It would be like someone who goes to Mass on Sunday only because he doesn't want to break a Church law, or someone who drives the speed limit only because he doesn't want to pay a fine. Taken to an extreme, you would have to memorize every law on the books to be sure you did not break one. The freedom of the Spirit is a life lived out of love. A person would go to Mass out of love for God; a driver would obey the speed limit to protect other drivers. As long as we love one another, we wouldn't have to worry about breaking the law, for God's laws are all examples of how to love one another.

Divorce & the Rest of the Family

Divorce will affect more than just the couple ending their marriage. Children in the family are affected. In-laws on both sides are experiencing the loss, too, as are neighbors and friends. Especially in this season of family get-togethers and celebrations, the separated and divorced can feel particularly isolated and vulnerable.

Make an effort at this time of year to offer help to the divorced:

- Show the care you still have for them.
- Support and comfort the children as they adjust to the changes.
- Listen well and with understanding.
- Suspend judgments.
- Expect to mourn the end of this marriage.
- Take a casserole over to the family.
- Offer respite to the custodial parent on occasion.
- Pray for the entire family.
- Welcome all members of the family at public and social gatherings.
- Be mindful that there are no "ex" parents, only "ex" spouses.
- Be kind to those in pain over the trauma of the divorce.
- Focus on the bright side of future opportunities and challenges.

Divorce is never the plan the couple had for their life. Extend help in appropriate ways.

The Separated & Divorced Support Group meets at Prince of Peace on Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m.
