The HARC Foundation

MISSION STATEMENT

The HARC Foundation's Greater Mission is to preserve and promote the value and importance of Creative Arts and Creative Artists in America – culturally, aesthetically, economically and therapeutically – as a fundamental requirement in fostering and maintaining a healthy society. HARC's Core Mission is to help qualified emerging American Creative Artists by identifying their needs and providing solutions through Foundation programs that will benefit their livelihood and encourage achievement of their artistic potential.

DUAL PURPOSE

HARC's primary purpose is to discover, recognize, nurture, promote and support emerging American Creative Artists in order to protect current artistic work in progress; to ensure the continuation of artistic creation; and, to provide the potential for future creative works. Creative Artists who are selected from all art disciplines, including fine arts, visual arts, literary arts, music and dance, receive cash HARC Awards, promotional benefits and opportunities for public presentation of their works.

HARC (Help Artists and Rehabilitate Children) maintains a secondary purpose to use the Creative Arts as a therapeutic science in the rehabilitation of abused, neglected and traumatized children. Since art, music and dance, for example, are used in therapy, not as therapy, the Creative Arts Therapy (CAT) programs must be administered by trained, licensed CAT Therapists. Selected Creative Artists receive cash awards to attend accredited Graduate Schools with degree programs necessary for licensure. Upon completion and receipt of their credentials, CAT Award recipients (Clinical Art Therapists, Music Therapists and Dance Therapists) are required to work with abused and neglected children.

Proceeds from this event will benefit The HARC Awards program and The HARC Creative Arts Therapy (CAT) Awards program.

congratulations
to The HARC Foundation from Gebert Gallery

Gebert Gallery is a proud sponsor of The HARC Foundation and their tireless efforts to nurture, promote and support artists working in such a wide array of art disciplines.

We wish you continued success!

For me the images were an escape from reality, with reality.” Her influences include Imogen Cunningham, Dorothea Lange, and Henri Cartier Bresson. She is drawn to photograph the colors and forms exhibited where she grew up. She is currently working on a series of memorable areas of Los Angeles she frequented with her Father and siblings, “To Celebrate Los Angeles That Still Is”. Mayers’ works have been displayed on back-lit boards and have recently been exhibited in innovative art projects throughout the United States on full-sized digital outdoor billboards.

DARLA WARNER (Artist) has been a true artist since three years old, using earth elements from the family farm to express herself. Her lifetime love has been translating the natural world into a personal expression of creation. EVEN THE MEDICIS WOULD STAND UP AND APPLAUD A DINING EXPERIENCE LIKE THIS.

"FRESH" is the keyword and it's what makes the menu's offerings truly outstanding. Handmade pasta and desserts are made fresh in the kitchen daily. Yet everything is revisited implementing local produce and blending traditional and modern trends.

The result: delicate and fulfilling mouthfuls of Italian/Californian goodness.

Co-owner Chef Giorgi from Rimini is the creative, passionate force behind the cuisine and guarantees not to bore your palate. In his dinner menu the enoteca section presents cheese, cold cuts, crostini, warm appetizers and salads while the varying daily specials and the menus designed for special occasions assure that you'll want to make repeat visits to MOSTO. Plus, the addition of young talented sous chef Michele Gargani has brought incredible imagination to everything from those daily specials to pre fixe menus to food pairings at Mosto wine tasting and raw bar events.

The predominantly Italian wine list handpicked by Co-owner Massimo Fubelli showcases Californian and Oregon options as well as an ever growing list of American micro brews. Fubelli, from Rome, runs the dining room and organizes all the wine tasting in collaboration with Gargani and master sommelier Diego Meraviglia and is certainly the go-to guy if you need a recommendation.
