

Sophia D. Dumond is proud to be a part of Boca Raton Achievement Center (BRAC). She received a master's degree in Special Education from Lynn University and has over seven years of teaching experience, working with students from elementary, middle, and high school, all the way up to the adult program. Helping each child progress in all areas of their development—academic, social, language, and motor—is a challenge that she is honored to accept daily. Sophia has worked as a classroom teacher, ESE Coordinator, Reading Specialist/Coach, and Lead Teacher. She strives to create a community of learners and nurtures their growth in a positive, fun environment.
