Millennium Envoys

Special Envoys Program

Expand Your Horizons

Millennium Envoys
PO Box 33, Baltimore, MD 21203

info@millenniumenvoys.com
millenniumenvoys.com

A Message from Danny Evans

Welcome to the Special Envoys Program.

At Millennium Envoys, we believe that the leaders of tomorrow are shaped by the experiences they have today. The Special Envoys Program was created to provide students with meaningful opportunities to explore diplomacy, international affairs, leadership, and public service through immersive, real-world experiences. By connecting fellows with diplomats, government officials, educators, and industry professionals, we aim to inspire curiosity, encourage cross-cultural understanding, and help students envision their future careers.

This program is about more than visiting institutions. It is about building confidence, expanding perspectives, and developing the skills needed to lead in an increasingly interconnected world. Every conversation, site visit, and professional connection represents an opportunity for growth and discovery.

As we celebrate this year's cohort, we also look toward the future. Our vision is to expand the Special Envoys Program by reaching more students, strengthening partnerships, and creating even greater opportunities for experiential learning and global engagement. We hope every fellow leaves not only with lasting memories, but also with the knowledge, confidence, and inspiration to become leaders who make a positive impact in their communities and around the world.

Thank you to our partners, mentors, sponsors, and fellows for making this vision a reality. Together, we are investing in the next generation of global leaders.

Warm regards,

Danny Evans

CEO/Founder, Millennium Envoys

Program Quick Facts

15+ Partner Organizations

25+ Guest Speakers

6 Countries Represented

3 Jurisdictions Explored

7-Day Immersive Experience

Millennium Envoys

Contents

What Is the Special Envoys Program? 04

Meet the Special Envoys and Fellows 07

Standing Ambassador 10

Daily Recaps 12

Special Envoys Testimonials 23

How to Apply 25

How to Become a Special Envoy 28

Become a Special Envoys Fellow 30

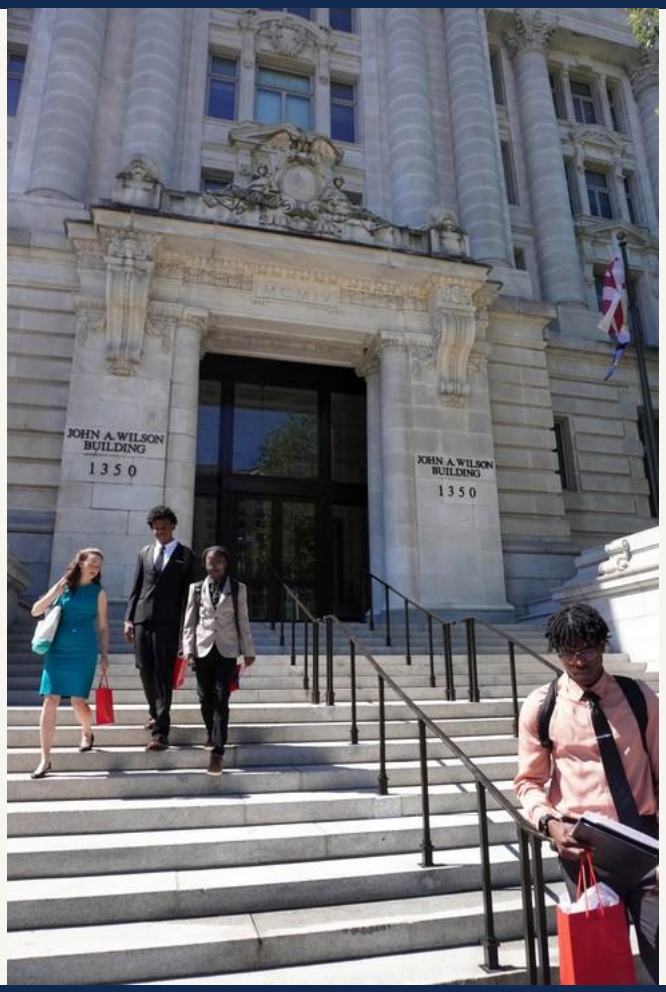

Become a Professional Mentor 33

Become a Sponsor 35

Thanks to Our Supporters 37

Contact Us 41

What Is The Special Envoys Program?

What is the Special Envoys Program?

The Special Envoys Program is a week-long immersive leadership experience designed to prepare high school, undergraduate, graduate, and recent graduates for success in an increasingly interconnected world. Through experiential learning, professional mentorship, and direct engagement with leaders across government, diplomacy, business, academia, and nonprofit organizations, participants gain a firsthand understanding of the institutions and relationships that shape international affairs.

Unlike a traditional classroom experience, the Special Envoys Program transforms the Washington, DC metropolitan region into a living classroom. Students learn by engaging directly with diplomats, policymakers, entrepreneurs, educators, and international affairs professionals while visiting embassies, government agencies, universities, ports, and global organizations. Every experience is intentionally designed to connect academic knowledge with practical application.

What is a “Special Envoy?”

An envoy serves as a trusted representative who builds relationships, promotes dialogue, and strengthens understanding between people, organizations, and nations. Throughout the program, students embrace this role by representing assigned countries, engaging in diplomacy simulations, and learning how collaboration, communication, and mutual respect can help address global challenges.

During the Program, students operate as envoys who pursue knowledge and international engagement in their own professional development interests as they develop their careers for the future.

Our Mission

The Special Envoys Program seeks to inspire and equip the next generation of globally minded leaders by providing transformative educational experiences that foster diplomacy, cultural understanding, leadership, and international collaboration.

Innovative Programs

Site visits and meetings that allow engagement with professionals in the real world.

Networking & Connection

Opportunities to foster relationships with experts in various fields.

These initiatives drive our mission of lifelong learning and engagement in global affairs

Our Four Pillars

01 Global Education

Explore international institutions, cultures, and global issues.

02 Professional Development

Build leadership, communication, and career-readiness skills.

03 Experiential Learning

Connect academic knowledge with site visits and real-world engagement.

04 Cross-Cultural Engagement

Strengthen dialogue, mutual understanding, and global collaboration.

What Makes the Program Unique?

Students engage directly with diplomats, policymakers, entrepreneurs, educators, and international affairs professionals through institutional visits, workshops, simulations, and networking.

Meet the Special Envoys & Fellows

The 2026 Special Envoys Cohort

Saamir Young

Senior, Washington Latin Public Charter School

Tamia Fuller

Graduate Student, International Development, American University

Rachel Ricciardi (Professional Mentor)

International Development Professional

Jaden Lemessy

Junior, Political Science, Towson University

Nyiohbe Reyes

Junior, Politics & Government, Ohio Wesleyan University

Zayda Fludd

Senior, Political Science, Morgan State University

Efosa Okoawo-Atohengbe

Freshman, Pharmacy, UMD Eastern Shore

Jessican Shelton

Graduate Student, Morgan State University

Millennium Envoys

Meet the Fellows

London Lenoir, Media Fellow
Student, Baltimore City Community College

Leah Mann, Media Fellow
Junior, International Studies, Morgan State University

Carolyn Chen, Program Fellow
International Education Professional

Millennium Envoys

Standing Ambassador

Standing Ambassador

Danica R. Starks served as the Standing Ambassador for the Special Envoys Program, providing exceptional leadership, mentorship, and guidance to fellows throughout the week. Through her generous financial support and dedicated volunteer service, she helped make the program possible while inspiring students to pursue excellence in leadership, professionalism, and global engagement.

Career Experience

- Morning Star Global Enterprises – Founder & Chief Executive Officer
- The World Bank Group – International Development & Global Partnerships
- U.S. Department of Commerce, International Trade Administration – International Trade & Commercial Diplomacy

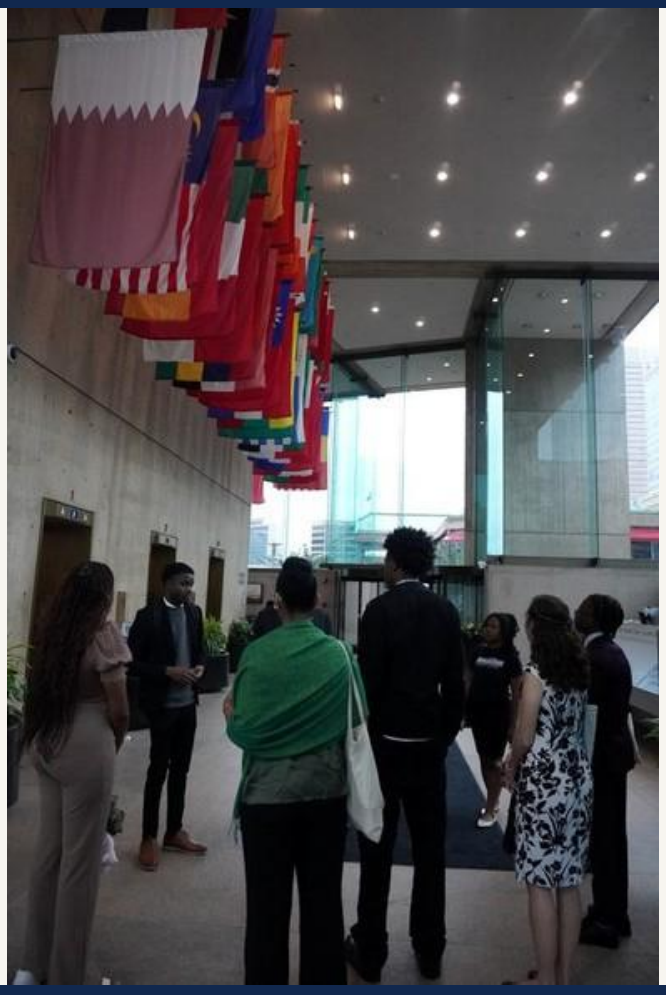

Danica R. Starks
CEO of Morning Star Global Enterprises LLC

Specializations

- International Trade
- Global Economic Development
- Eurasia & Eastern Europe Regional Affairs

Daily Recaps

Daily Recaps Overview

01

Annapolis, Maryland (MD)

The program began in Annapolis, where students discovered how state government, civic engagement, and public service lay the foundation for effective leadership.

02

Baltimore, MD

Through firsthand experiences at the Port of Baltimore, Mediterranean Shipping Company, and the World Trade Center Institute, students learned how international trade and economic development connect communities around the world.

03

Washington, DC

Fellows experienced diplomacy firsthand by visiting government offices, international organizations, and embassies, gaining valuable insight into global cooperation, foreign policy, and cultural exchange.

04

Washington, DC

Students engaged with scholars, diplomats, and regional experts to explore international affairs, global food security, and public diplomacy while gaining diverse perspectives on today's most pressing global challenges.

05

Reston, VA & Washington, DC

Through hands-on project management training at RMantras and discussions at the Embassy of the Philippines, fellows strengthened their leadership skills while exploring innovation, diplomacy, and cross-cultural collaboration.

06

Washington, DC

The week concluded with professional development, entrepreneurship, and collaborative presentation preparation, empowering students to reflect on their experiences and prepare for future leadership opportunities.

Daily Recaps Overview

07

Closing Ceremony (Virtual)

Students celebrated the conclusion of the Special Envoys Program by presenting their country projects, reflecting on their experiences, and sharing how the program prepared them to become future global leaders.

Day 1: Annapolis, Maryland

Discovering Maryland's Significance

The students explored Maryland's rich history and government institutions while learning how public service and civic leadership contribute to strong communities and international partnerships. Many thanks to the offices of the Maryland Secretary of State and Service and Civic Innovation for inviting and accommodating us for an inspirational first day of the program.

The Partners

Maryland
Department of Service and Civic Innovation

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Michael Lore

Deputy Secretary of State, Maryland

Robert Alicea & David Cobb

Maryland Department of Service and Civic Innovation

Day 2: Baltimore, Maryland

Engaging with Global Commerce

Day 2 immersed students in the world of international trade and economic development through visits to the Port of Baltimore, the Mediterranean Shipping Company (MSC), a conversation with the Maryland Deputy Secretary of Commerce, and the World Trade Center Institute. Students gained firsthand insight into global supply chains, maritime logistics, and Maryland's role in international commerce while engaging with leaders from the public and private sectors.

The Partners

PORT OF BALTIMORE 1706 Helen Delich Bentley

Maryland DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

msc

WORLD TRADE CENTER INSTITUTE

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Kimberly Houck

Human Resources Administrator, Maryland Port Administration

Ricardo Benn

Deputy Secretary of Commerce, Maryland

Federico Lecchi

Branch Manager, Mediterranean Shipping Company

Daniel Khoshkepazi

Senior Manager of Fellowships, World Trade Center Institute

Day 3: Washington, DC

International Diplomacy and Education

Day 3 immersed the students in the heart of international diplomacy through visits and engagements with the DC Office of the Secretary of State, the International Tax and Investment Center, the Embassy of Jamaica, and American Councils for International Education. Students explored the vital roles of diplomacy, international economic policy, educational exchange, and cultural engagement while interacting with diplomats and global affairs professionals.

The Partners

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Bileh Dougsiyeh & Alma R. Candelaria

Office of DC Secretary of State

Blake Marshall

Vice President, International Tax and Investment Center

Emile Wallace-Waddell

Community Relations Officer, Embassy of Jamaica Washington, D.C.

Emily Matts Henry & More

American Councils of International Education Staff and Alumni

Day 4: Washington, DC

Education, Diplomacy & Public Policy

Day 4 brought the students together with scholars, diplomats, food security and policy experts to explore the complex challenges shaping today's world. Through visits to the Sigur Center for Asian Studies at George Washington University, Founding Farmers, the National Museum of American Diplomacy, and a distinguished Regional Affairs Panel, students examined topics including Indo-Pacific affairs, food security, diplomacy, and regional cooperation.

The Partners

Sigur Center for Asian Studies
THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

FOUNDING FARMERS

National Museum of American Diplomacy

UNITED STATES SENATE

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Dr. Gregg Brazinsky & John Tai

Sigur Center for Asian Studies, George Washington University

Kristina Mitchell

Contact Center Manager, Founding Farmers

Ciara Koepke

Public Engagement Associate, National Museum of American Diplomacy

Regional Panel Discussion

We would also like to thank the following panelists for their help in making our Regional Panel on United States Capitol Hill Discussion on Day 4 a resounding success.

Shanti Shoji, Director of Programs, Sasakawa USA

Donatienne Ruy, Fellow, Europe, Russia & Eurasia Program,
Center for Strategic & International Studies

Jude Mutah, Director, Member Relations,
Corporate Council on Africa

Ambassador (ret). Yael Lempert, Vice President of Outreach,
Middle East Institute

Day 5: Reston, VA & Washington, DC

Leadership & Global Engagement

Day 5 focused on leadership, innovation, and global engagement through visits to RMantras and the Embassy of the Philippines. Students participated in hands-on project management and organizational leadership activities before exploring Philippine history, foreign policy, and the role of diplomacy in strengthening international partnerships.

The Partners

RMantras
RMANTRA SOLUTIONS INC.

The Republic of the Philippines
PHILIPPINE EMBASSY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

BAGONG PILIPINAS

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting

their time to meet and engage with our students.

Ron Hinds

DoW Portfolio Director, RMantras

Deputy Chief of Mission Felipe F. Cariño and Mark Dominic E. Lim

Embassy of the Republic of the Philippines Washington, D.C.

Day 6: Washington, DC

Professional Growth & Entrepreneurship

The final full day of the Special Envoys Program focused on professional growth, entrepreneurship, and reflection. Students participated in a leadership workshop led by Danica R. Starks, gained entrepreneurial insights during a Lunch & Learn with Kuen "Mr. Kapow" Deeprachakorn, and worked collaboratively to prepare their Closing Ceremony presentations.

The Partners

DC Public Library

KAPOW BUDDY
THAI STREET BOWL

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Danica R. Starks

Chief Executive Officer, Morning Star Global Enterprises, LLC

Prompas "Kuen" Deeprachakorn

Owner, Kapow Buddy

Day 7: Virtual

Final Presentations & Reflections

The Special Envoys Program concluded with a virtual Closing Ceremony, where fellows presented their country delegation projects and reflected on the knowledge, skills, and professional connections they developed throughout the week. Joined by family, partners, and supporters, students celebrated their growth as emerging global leaders while sharing how the program will shape their future academic, professional, and personal journeys.

Our Speakers

We thank the following speakers for allotting their time to meet and engage with our students.

Danica R. Starks

Chief Executive Officer,
Morning Star Global
Enterprises, LLC

Special Envoys Testimonials

Reflections from Our Fellows

The heart of the Special Envoys Program is the lasting impact it leaves on the students who participate. Throughout the week, fellows build meaningful relationships, explore new perspectives, develop professional skills, and gain firsthand insight into diplomacy, leadership, and international affairs. Their experiences, reflections, and personal growth are what truly define the success of the program.

The following pages feature reflections from our Special Envoys as they share how the program challenged, inspired, and prepared them to become globally minded leaders. From memorable site visits and professional connections to newfound confidence and career aspirations, these testimonials capture the transformative journey of the Special Envoys Program.

Testimonial 1

"The program reinforced my passion for international politics and showed me that diplomacy extends far beyond national governments. I now have a greater appreciation for how local, state, and international actors collaborate to address global challenges. Moving forward, I will apply these skills throughout my academic career and future career in public service, using diplomacy, research, and cross-cultural understanding to help build stronger international partnerships."

Jaden Lemessy, Towson University, Japan

Testimonial 2

"The Special Envoys program has reaffirmed the commitment I made since I was a little girl to a career in India's relations, and it's also clarified my goal of becoming a diplomat in the future while also exposing me to the many other career paths available in the international affairs sector.

If I were to give a piece of advice to Future Special envoys, it is simple: don't wait until you think you're ready. Take every opportunity to learn, ask questions, and get involved."

Nyiohbe Reyes, Ohio Wesleyan University, India

Testimonial 3

"The Special Envoys Program is an extremely necessary experience for those interested in international relations professionally. The opportunity to learn from and converse with those within the field was life-changing. The skills I improved included global leadership and critical thinking from a global perspective. These skills are important in understanding foreign policy and relations. The program definitely changed my perspective. I was able to see the different careers that are available to me in the field. I was able to make genuine connections and have incredible experiences. My passion for international relations has grown, and I'm excited for the future!"

Jessica Shelton, Morgan State University, Peru

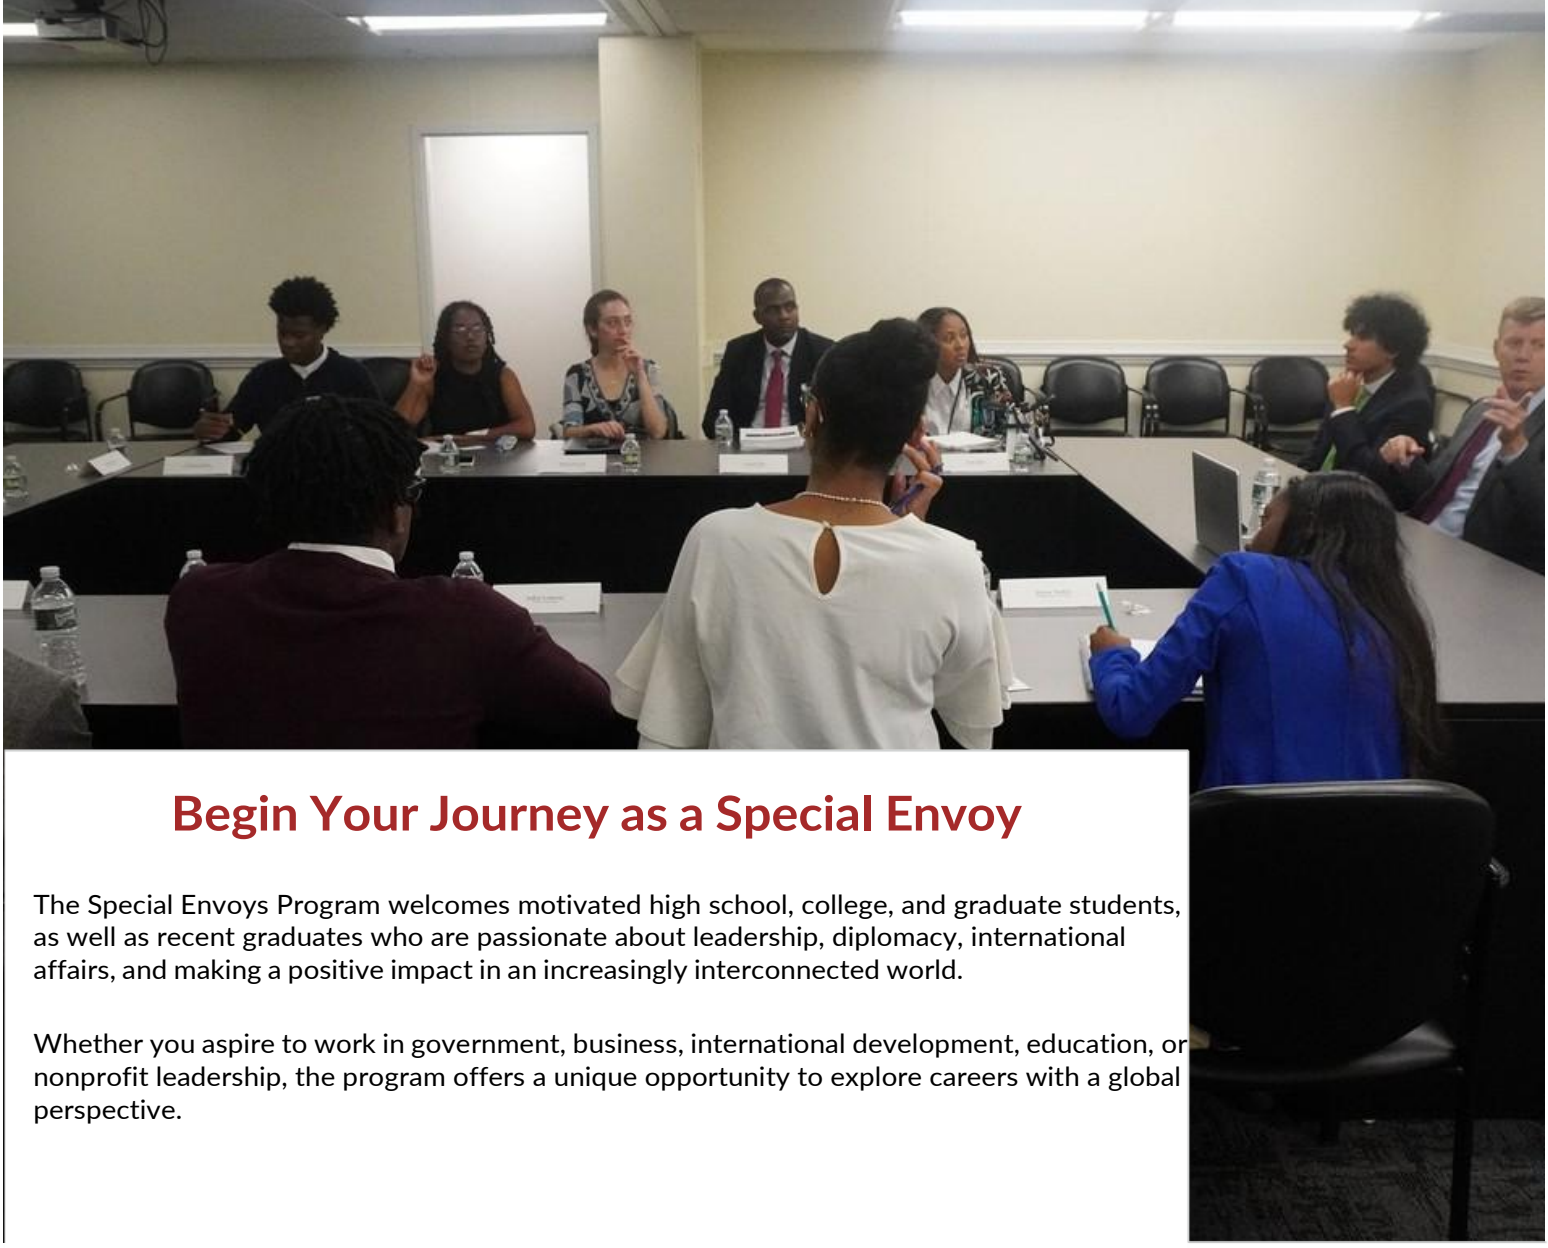

Testimonial 4

"As a rising senior at Morgan State University studying political science, the Special Envoys Fellowship introduced me to a wide range of professions in and out of my field. The program also pushed me out of my comfort zone, planting a seed on how to navigate life personally. After the fellowship, I learned the importance of teamwork and overcoming fear. Spending a week with my fellows, alongside daily sessions, taught me the importance of reliability, trust, and vulnerability. The Special Envoys Fellowship showed me how to balance personal growth with professional advancement.

Zayda Fludd, Morgan State University, India

How to Apply

Begin Your Journey as a Special Envoy

The Special Envoys Program welcomes motivated high school, college, and graduate students, as well as recent graduates who are passionate about leadership, diplomacy, international affairs, and making a positive impact in an increasingly interconnected world.

Whether you aspire to work in government, business, international development, education, or nonprofit leadership, the program offers a unique opportunity to explore careers with a global perspective.

Application Steps

01

Submit your online application with your personal information, resume, bio and headshot.

02

Tell us why you're interested in the Special Envoys Program, your leadership experiences, and how the program aligns with your academic or career goals in a meeting with staff.

03

Selected applicants will receive admission information and next steps to confirm their participation in the program.

Who Should Apply?

We encourage applications from students who are:

01

Connected to international affairs

Passionate about international affairs, diplomacy, or global business

02

Interested in Personal Growth

Interested in developing leadership and professional skills

03

Ambitious and Self-Motivated

Motivated to engage with professionals and explore future career opportunities

Join the next generation of global leaders

The Special Envoys Program is more than a summer experience. It is an opportunity to build lasting friendships, develop professional skills, and gain firsthand exposure to the world of diplomacy and international leadership.

We look forward to welcoming the next class of Special Envoys.

Apply today and take the first step toward becoming a globally minded leader.

For additional questions, contact us!

millenniumenvoys.com

info@millenniumenvoys.com

Become a Special Envoy

2027 Special Envoys Program Overview

The Special Envoys Program offered by Millennium Envoys is a dynamic, week-long initiative designed for high school, undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate students interested in international affairs. This program aims to expose participants to opportunities in cultural affairs, global leadership, and diplomacy through practical experiences, site visits, and networking.

The program activities are conducted in the Washington, D.C., Maryland, and Virginia (DMV) region, so participants must be located in that area at the time of the program. The Special Envoys Program does not cover the cost of airfare and hotel stays; however, we strive to ensure that transportation and meal expenses are taken care of throughout the program. We plan to begin accepting applications in November 2026 for the 2027 Special Envoys Cohort.

01 Who Should Apply?

The Special Envoys Program is ideal for students who are:

- Interested in diplomacy, international affairs, or public service
- Curious about different cultures and global issues
- Passionate about leadership and community engagement
- Seeking professional networking and career exploration opportunities
- Eager to learn through hands-on, experiential learning

02 What You'll Gain

As a Special Envoy, you will:

- Engage directly with diplomats, policymakers, and industry professionals
- Visit embassies, government agencies, universities, and international organizations
- Develop leadership, communication, and teamwork skills
- Expand your professional network through mentorship and networking opportunities
- Represent a country during diplomacy simulations and collaborative projects

03 Growth for your Future

Whether your future lies in diplomacy, international business, or public policy, the Special Envoys Program provides an unparalleled opportunity to learn from professionals, build lifelong connections, and experience international affairs beyond the classroom.

Become a Special Envoys Fellow

How to Become a Fellow

For students and professionals with busy schedules, the Special Envoys Fellowship offers a flexible way to other commitments. Fellows support the program through administrative and logistical coordination or by media content, with flexible scheduling available to accommodate in the program while balancing work, capturing photos, videos, and manage all social media activities.

We have two options for serving as a Fellow:

Program Fellow

The Program Fellow will provide essential support to the Millennium Envoys' staff and leadership during our prep meeting and one-week event. This is a dynamic, hands-on role that helps ensure the smooth operation of all event activities and provides a positive and supportive experience for all participants.

Responsibilities

- Assist with the coordination and day-to-day operations of the Special Envoys Program.
- Support event logistics, including setup, participant check-in, and activity coordination.
- Provide assistance to students, volunteers, and program staff throughout the week.
- Help distribute program materials and ensure activities run smoothly and on schedule.
- Communicate with the program team to address participant needs and resolve logistical challenges.
- Contribute to a welcoming, organized, and professional environment for all participants and partners.

The Ideal Candidate is:

- Organized and dependable
- Interpersonal with communication skills
- Interested in leadership, international affairs, or nonprofit management
- Able to work collaboratively in a fast-paced environment

For additional questions, contact us!

millenniumenvoys.com
info@millenniumenvoys.com

Media Fellow

The Media Fellow will provide essential support to the event's media team. The assistant will help create and manage content for social media and other outlets, provide on-site administrative help, and ensure media-related tasks are completed efficiently. This is an excellent opportunity for individuals to gain practical experience in event marketing and communications.

Responsibilities

- Capture photos and videos during site visits, workshops, and special events.
- Assist with live social media coverage across Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, and X.
- Create captions, graphics, and promotional content using Canva and other digital tools.
- Help organize media content and support post-program communications.
- Contribute creative ideas to increase audience engagement and program visibility.
- Support digital storytelling that highlights student experiences and program impact.

The Ideal Candidate has a:

- Passion for communications, media, or digital storytelling • Interest in international affairs and public diplomacy
- Creative mindset with strong visual and written communication skills • Familiarity with social media platforms and Canva preferred

For additional questions, contact us!

millenniumenvoys.com

info@millenniumenvoys.com

Become a Professional Mentor

Professional Mentor

Professional Mentors serve as trusted advisors and experienced professionals who support Special Envoys throughout the program by sharing their expertise, offering career guidance, and encouraging personal and professional growth. Drawing from their own experiences, mentors help students build confidence, expand their perspectives, and explore pathways in international affairs, public service, business, and related fields.

Responsibilities

- Provide guidance on academic, professional, and career development
- Share industry knowledge, personal experiences, and leadership insights
- Encourage students to identify goals and develop their professional skills
- Offer constructive feedback and support throughout the program
- Foster meaningful networking opportunities and professional connections
- Inspire the next generation of globally minded leaders through mentorship and engagement

Desired Qualities

Professional Mentors are experienced leaders who are passionate about developing others. They demonstrate strong communication and interpersonal skills, a commitment to service, and the ability to encourage, challenge, and empower students as they prepare for future academic and professional success.

What Mentors Contribute

Professional Mentors play a vital role in the Special Envoys Program by sharing their knowledge, experiences, and professional networks to help students build confidence, develop leadership skills, and prepare for future academic and career opportunities.

For additional questions, contact

millenniumenvoys.com

info@millenniumenvoys.com

Become a Sponsor

Invest in the Next Generation of Global Leaders

The Special Envoys Program is made possible through the generosity of individuals, businesses, foundations, and community organizations that believe in the power of education, leadership, and global engagement. Sponsorships help provide students with transformative learning experiences by supporting transportation, meals, educational materials, program activities, and scholarship opportunities.

By becoming a sponsor, you are investing in future diplomats, public servants, entrepreneurs, educators, and global leaders who are preparing to make a meaningful impact in their communities and around the world.

Ways to Support

- Sponsor a Student by helping reduce financial barriers to participation
- Support Program Experiences including educational visits, workshops, and cultural activities
- Provide In-Kind Contributions such as meals, transportation, meeting spaces, or educational resources
- Partner with Millennium Envoys by hosting a site visit, workshop, or professional development session

Sponsor Benefits

Sponsors become valued partners in our mission to expand educational access and experiential learning. Depending on the level of support, recognition opportunities may include acknowledgment in program materials, on the Millennium Envoys website and social media platforms, and at program events.

Interested?

To learn more about sponsorship opportunities or to become a program partner, please contact Millennium Envoys or visit our website.

For additional questions, contact us!

millenniumenvoys.com info@millenniumenvoys.com

Thanks to Our Supporters

Partners

We extend our sincere appreciation to our partner organizations for their collaboration, hospitality, and commitment to experiential learning. Their support provided our students with invaluable opportunities to engage with professionals, explore new perspectives, and experience international affairs firsthand.

Morning Star Global Enterprises, LLC Maryland
Secretary of State Office
Maryland Department of Service and Civic Innovation Port of Baltimore
Mediterranean Shipping Company
World Trade Center Institute
DC Secretary of State Office
International Tax and Investment Center
Embassy of Jamaica
American Councils for International Education
Sigur Center for Asian Studies
Founding Farmers
National Museum for American Diplomacy
Office of Senator Chris Van Hollen
RMantras
Embassy of the Republic of the Philippines
DC Public Library
Kapow Buddy

Thanks to Our Sponsors

The Special Envoys Program is made possible through the generosity of our sponsors and supporters who share our commitment to education, leadership, and global engagement. Their investment helps provide students with transformative experiences, meaningful professional connections, and firsthand exposure to diplomacy, public service, and international affairs throughout the Washington, DC metropolitan region.

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to every individual, organization, and community partner whose support made this program possible. Your generosity has helped empower the next generation of globally minded leaders and created opportunities that will have a lasting impact on our fellows.

Featured Sponsor

We extend our sincere appreciation to Danica R. Starks, our Standing Ambassador, whose extraordinary generosity, leadership, and commitment to the mission of the Special Envoys Program helped make this years' experience possible. As our Standing Ambassador, she invested not only through her philanthropic support, but also through her mentorship, professional development workshop, and unwavering encouragement of our students.

Program Sponsors

We gratefully acknowledge the organizations and individuals whose financial contributions and in-kind support helped enrich the Special Envoys Program.

Morning Star Global Enterprises, LLC KaPow
Buddy
Bert Hash
Tristine Harris
B.R.I.C.S
McCrae Malveaux
Shannon Liburd
Jonathan Braxton
Dana Baughns
Viodia Jallah

Contact Us

Local to Global
B.M.O.R.E.
Marketable
In demand and highly desirable
Optimal
Best or most favorable
Rare
Uncommon and exceptional

Contact Us

The Special Envoys Program is one of several initiatives offered by Millennium Envoys, an organization committed to preparing the next generation of globally minded leaders through education, cultural exchange, leadership development, and international engagement. Our programs connect students and young professionals with government leaders, diplomats, educators, entrepreneurs, and international organizations to foster cross-cultural understanding and inspire careers in public service and global affairs.

In addition to the Special Envoys Program, Millennium Envoys offers a variety of educational initiatives, including international study programs, leadership and professional development workshops, cultural exchange opportunities, language and global competency programming, and community engagement experiences designed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in an interconnected world.

Whether you are a prospective student, parent, educator, partner organization, or sponsor, we invite you to join us in advancing our mission of empowering future leaders through global education and experiential learning.

We look forward to connecting with you!

Our Info

01 Address & Phone

PO Box 33, Baltimore, MD 21203
404-483-6848

02 Email

Danny Evans - CEO, Founder:
global@millenniumenvoys.com

General Inquiries:
info@millenniumenvoys.com

03 Social Media

linktr.ee/millenniumenvoys

Millennium Envoys

Millennium Envoys

Expand Your Horizons

404-483-6848
info@millenniumenvoys.com
millenniumenvoys.com