

LOWER BONDED RETAINER

The lower bonded retainer is responsible for keeping the lower incisors straight. The lower incisors in turn help maintain alignment of the upper incisors. If the lower bonded retainer is ever removed, chances are, an unacceptable amount of tooth crowding will slowly reoccur. So, yes, you wear retainers forever but it is simple to do and a small price to guarantee keeping a beautiful smile and healthy bite.

Please call us if you have any questions.