

NORTH TEXAS WINE TOUR - Thursday, April 24, 2025

Heigh-ho, heigh-ho, it's off to Saint Jo we go! The Stonewall Saloon Museum was the first permanent structure built in historic Saint Jo in 1873 to accommodate thirsty trail drovers moving cattle along the Chisholm Trail. Enjoy two of North Texas' premier vineyards, Blue Ostrich, and Arché, for samplings of fine reds, whites, rose' and more. Additional glasses and/or bottles are not included, but will be available for purchase.

$185.00 Per Person - 25 Person Minimum - Lunch Included

CLARK GARDENS & MINERAL WELLS - Wednesday, May 14, 2025

What began as the Clark's private garden in 1972 - a small personal endeavor of traditional landscaping on this rugged Texas hillside - is now a botanical masterpiece. Experience the tranquility of the garden while riding through fragrant, blossom-filled pathways in a staff driven golf cart.

As you wander down the sidewalks of Downtown Mineral Wells and admire the 100-plus historic buildings, you'll feel a sense of days past. A little Crazy Water never hurt anyone... In fact, it can help! See what has been attracting health seekers from across the globe for over 100 years, and bring your own 1-5 gallon jug to fill up and take home with you.

$135.00 Per Person - Lunch Included
