GROUP TOPICS

Identity - Who I Am (10 weeks)- Supports women's self-discovery and the importance of each one's place in family, community, and culture by examining "What Does it Mean to be Me?" and societal messages about identity. Women share values, influences, dreams and roles within the context of family and culture leading to sharing of self-expressions, acceptance and affirmations in a supportive community.

Relationships (10 weeks)- Addresses relationships in women's lives, including intimacy, sexuality, and personal standards. Explores working and professional relationships, family and friendships, as well as competition and community. Women journal, brainstorm, role-play, and discuss topics with an inclusive approach, fostering deep connections and exploration of the importance of healthy relationships to women's lives and well-being.

Being a well woman (10 weeks)- Focuses on holistic health and wellness using a variety of creative processes such as collage, games, surveys, case studies, and analysis along with guided visualization, stress relief and inspirational role models to explore self-care and how to support one another. Themes include physical, emotional, spiritual, occupational and financial wellness, as well as intimacy and sexual wellness in women's lives.

SAFE FAMILY JUSTICE CENTERS

BOYS COUNCIL

The Council is a strengths-based group approach for middle school aged boys and youth who identify with male development to promote their safe and healthy passage through pre-teen and adolescent years. The Council meets a core developmental need in boys for strong, positive relationships. In this structured environment, boys and young men gain the vital opportunity to address masculine definitions and behaviors and build their capacities to find their innate value and create good lives - individually and collectively.

This group is free and offered in multiple locations. Call for dates in other areas.
