Mom's House®, Inc. of Johnstown

The first Mom's House® was started in Johnstown, Pennsylvania in 1983. Mom's House® was founded to offer single, abused women with unplanned pregnancies a viable solution to the despair of abortion and the tragedy of welfare.

The results of our vision to help single parents and their children has been very successful. The first Mom's House® has proven to be an international model to seven Mom's Houses® that are now operating in four states with more in development. Mom's House® received a Registered Service Mark from the U.S. Patent Office. President George W. Bush named Mom's House® the 786th "Points of Light" award winner for our service to helping others.

Mom's House® combines network of services for parents including a comprehensive support system with a quality childcare program. Parents entering the Mom's House® program continue their education by becoming full-time students, either in high school or post-secondary school or job training.
