

100% BRITISH COLUMBIA VQA OKANAGAN VALLEY WINES

“From grape to bottle, our winery is devoted to traditional French varietals, made by the Coulombe family in a blend of old and new approaches.”

vinAmité: Harmony, a meeting of minds, a joining of Old World and New World approaches, a family of wines for family and friends. Living in harmony with each other and with our wines is felt by customers who visit us and get to know our wines.

For nearly two decades, our grapes were sold to well-known Wineries throughout the Valley. Since 2013, our grapes have stayed where they're grown on their own terroir and turned into fine estate wines in small quantities. Our grapes are no longer hiding in plain sight. From grape to bottle, our winery is devoted to traditional French varietals made by the Coulombe family in a blend of old and new approaches. What was lost is now found: vinAmité Cellars, a family of boutique wines to call your own.

Small is the new big. Bienvenue!
