

Gather Round...It's Time for a Story

This is the disciple who testifies concerning these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true. Jesus did many other things as well. If all of them were recorded, I imagine the world itself wouldn't have enough room for the scrolls that would be written. John 21:24-25

Or maybe it's time for a bunch of stories; time for a multitude of voices to sound with the rising and falling of a cadence that leads us through a mutual experience in very unique and meaningful ways. Maybe it's time to explore the ways in which all of the stories that are before us and have particular meaning as the children of God point with many gestures to one character, one purpose, one beginning and one end.

I hope you'll join me for the next seven weeks as we explore all the wonderful aspects of this overarching story that we love, revere, and live out. From the Introduction to the Twist Ending, we'll rejoice in all the ways we've been blessed with a treasure trove of experience, faithful speculation, and a path that leads from the middle of the story where we find ourselves back to the beginning and onward to the conclusion that always seems to be just a few pages on.

It's God's Story, of course, as God is the main character in it. But it's also my story, your story, and our story together, and if we faithfully attend and engage, we'll find each and every one of us.

Each week is a cliffhanger! So stay with me and let's hear a story so that we may LIVE the story!
