WHO IS GATSBY RANDOLPH? PART II

INVESTMENT OPENS, CONTENTGEYSER.COM

(MONDAY | 5.12.2025 | DUBAI, UAE) – Today, Image Geyser and Who Is Gatsby Randolph, LLC opened an investment, on Content Geyser, for the highly anticipated follow up to the critically acclaimed, 2021 Oscar Nominee for Best Documentary Feature, Who Is Gatsby Randolph?.

Using both personal and licensed archival footage, filmmaker Gatsby Randolph cut his reality into a documentary to create a modern-day Borat meets Bowfinger feature film that earned raves reviews when it premiered in the US, Australia, and the UAE. The sequel is set for a summer 2025 release.

Part I is a hilariously funny, rags to riches, back rags, to rubbing elbows with the richest people in the world, story. Who Is Gatsby Randolph Part II picks up where the journey ends in the original film.

Ten years after crashing Hollywood's biggest parties to become a red carpet phenom, Gatsby is no longer an outsider-he's finally in the room. With TV deals, comedy specials, and the major studios lining up, Gatsby appears to be living the dream. But just as he's poised to sign the biggest deal of his career, Hollywood comes to a standstill during the historic industry strikes.

Shot across 10 countries and 4 continents, blending cinema and vérité, Part II is a bold, genre-defying comedy-drama that combines the wit of Borat with the style of 007, James Bond. It's a story of reinvention, cultural collision, and the unwavering belief that greatness isn't given-it's taken.

"Gatsby is the true story of a phenomenal individual," says Thom Noble who lent his Academy Award to the movie. "I love the film; it is simply a marvelous job of editing," which is quite the endorsement from an Oscar winner for Best Editing (Witness).
