

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Charming New Children’s Book Celebrates the Beauty of Multiculturalism, Childhood Curiosity, and Kindness — The Wondrous Adventures of Julie O’Day

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA; October 3, 2023: Mascot Kids is delighted to announce the release of The Wondrous Adventures of Julie O’Day: A Day at the Beach, a charming new children’s book by author Jenny Morgan, with illustrations by Chiara Civati.

What do YOU wonder?

Julie O’Day is always curious about the world and those around her. During a day at the beach with her parents, Julie learns how families from around the world enjoy the sun and sand in their own special way. Julie also meets a young boy from Paris named Marcus L’Amour, and they immediately connect with each other. To Julie’s surprise, they have much more in common than she realized. Come along with Julie as she wonders about the world and all those around her!

The Wondrous Adventures of Julie O’Day: A Day at the Beach is a testament to the beauty of multiculturalism, childhood curiosity, and kindness. It is the perfect read for young children to learn important social themes, life lessons, and the power of friendship.

Jenny Morgan is an educator who has worked with children of nearly every age and stage, from pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade, and is now making her debut as a children’s author with The Wondrous Adventures of Julie O’Day. Outside of teaching, Jenny also gives her time to causes close to the heart. She volunteers at the Children’s Hospital Los Angeles, mentors students through the Youth Citizenship Seminar held at Pepperdine University, and is an advocate for the Step-Up Women’s Network, City of Hope, and The Blind Children’s Center. A native of Southern California, she received her BA from Pepperdine University and her MAT from the University of Southern California. Jenny currently resides in Los Angeles.
