ST. MARK'S DAY EVENSONG

April 27 | 5 p.m. | St. Mark's Episcopal Church

Featuring the St. Mark's Church Choir & The St. Mark's Episcopal School Middle School Choir

In celebration of the Feast of Saint Mark, St. Mark's Church Choir and St. Mark's Middle School Choir will join together for a Choral Evensong on Saturday, April 27 at 5p.m. in the sanctuary. The Anglican tradition of evensong comprises of psalms, canticles, prayers, and anthems which are sung. The choirs will sing compositions by Rachel Aarons, Ruth Elaine Schram, Harold Friedell, and Vicki Hancock Wright. A reception will follow the service.

April 21 | Beginning at 9 a.m. | Hauser Hall

Join us Sunday, April 21, beginning at 9 a.m. in Hauser Hall, to make lunches for Houston's hungry children. All ages are welcome. For our younger volunteers, we will have art supplies to decorate lunch bags. We ask that those who have longer hair to please wear a hat or head covering.

Senior Sunday

Commemorating our graduating High School seniors is an important part of the youth ministry at St. Mark's. On Sunday, May 19, during the 10:30 a.m. service, we will honor those finishing high school and beginning their adult lives. If you have a graduating senior, please contact Stephen Adkison at stephen.adkison@stmarks-houston.org with their name, the high school they are graduating from, and any plans they have for the future.

Middle School Parent Meeting

Pathway to Confirmation

Is your child currently in grade 4 through grade 7? We would like to invite you to a parent meeting in Hauser Hall on May 19 at 9:45 A.M. Whether they are already regular attendees or just beginning their St. Mark's journey, we welcome your children into our Fall 2024 Youth program. Learn how you can best prepare your child to thrive in Confirmation their 8th grade year.
