Into the Future 4 – The next chapter in our Bishops plan for a sustainable future for our Diocese is being published. Bishop Peter asks that each parish reads this document and gives feedback by the end of September. To facilitate this, copies of the letter will be available to all. Please take one, read it and pray on it, then please be ready to give your comments after Mass on Sunday 12th September, when paper and pens will be available for you to write any comments anonymously. These will then be transcribed into our parish response.
