Sharing Peace, Love & Compassion - One Heart At A Time

Dear Friends,

Universal Peace Officers is a publicly supported, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) nonprofit ministry based in Alabaster, Alabama, founded by Paul “Smokey” Curcio. Our calling is simple: Love God. Love you. Love others. We live that calling through practical service, compassionate presence, and the enduring message of hope.

We believe every person carries immeasurable worth. Whether someone is facing recovery, homelessness, hardship, or a difficult season of transition, we seek to meet them right where they are—with a meal, fellowship, encouragement, and a reminder that they are not forgotten.

How We Serve Each Month

- Serving meals in partnership with Cultivate Church’s Celebrate Recovery,
- Providing meals and fellowship at Brother Bryan Mission, serving neighbors experiencing homelessness in Birmingham.
- Coffee & Fellowship @ Southside Baptist Food Pantry
- Providing meals through HIM — Hope Inspired Ministries, supporting individuals as they pursue stability, job readiness, and life-changing employment skills.
- Delivering meals and a message of hope to Turning Point, a men’s faith-based live-in residency in Thorsby,AL
- Supporting additional community needs through outreach, prison ministry, and food and clothing assistance as resources allow.

These moments of service can look simple, but their impact is lasting: a warm meal, a familiar face, a conversation, a prayer, and a place to belong. Through partnerships with recovery groups, Brother Bryan Mission, Cultivate Church, HIM—Hope Inspired Ministries, Southside Baptist Food Pantry and Turning Point, we meet people in seasons of hardship, recovery, transition, and new opportunity. Brother Paul’s BBQ helps supply food and provides a local base of operations; the heart of the work, however, is always the people we serve and the hope we share.

“Doing what we can, with what we have, right where we are.”

An Invitation to Partner

We invite local business owners, churches, families, and individuals to consider Universal Peace Officers as a year-end ministry partner or an ongoing place of annual giving. Every donation—whether a one-time gift or recurring support, helps provide meals, transportation, supplies, ministry materials, and the resources needed to keep showing up for our neighbors.

Every gift helps provide meals, transportation, food and pantry supplies, ministry materials, and practical resources for people rebuilding their lives. Your partnership helps us serve individuals in recovery, neighbors experiencing homelessness, people pursuing job skills and employment through HIM—Hope Inspired Ministries, and others seeking a fresh start.

Your support multiplies our capacity to serve. Together, we can keep showing up—one meal, one visit, one conversation, and one person at a time, so that more lives in our community experience peace, love, compassion, and hope.

Thank you for considering an investment in local, hands-on ministry. We would be grateful to share additional details, provide our 501(c)(3) documentation, or answer any questions.
