

Queen City Music Fest 2026

Saturday, February 21, 2026

It is with great pleasure that we announce the 21st Queen City Music Fest (QCMF), taking place on February 21, 2026.

Queen City Music Fest is a quality evaluation program with an informal and encouraging spirit, designed to provide meaningful feedback and positive reinforcement for young musicians.

QCMF is open to:

- Piano students: Kindergarten–12th Grade
- String students: Kindergarten–12th Grade

 This event includes BOTH Piano and String students.

New for 2026 (Piano Only!)

In partnership with Faber Piano Adventures, piano students may now participate in the Piano Adventures Online Theory Exam on the same day as their QCMF performance.

Piano Adventures Online Theory Exams

These online exams are designed to:

- Build a love of music theory and performance
- Recognize student progress in meaningful ways
- Provide flexibility and accessibility for families

On-site requirements:

Students must bring their own device and headset to complete the exam.

Exam Details

- Elementary Levels (Primer–2B):
70 questions • Passing score: 49/70
- Intermediate Levels (3A–4):
100 questions • Passing score: 70/100

 Certificates of Completion will be awarded to students who pass the theory exam and will be recognized in person during the Awards Recital Celebrations.

Evaluation Process

- Adjudication follows a 5-Star System
- Judges provide thorough, educational, and constructive written feedback
- 5 Stars indicate an outstanding performance demonstrating excellent preparation
- Stars reflect areas of growth and achievement
- A cumulative stars program is in effect, with awards presented at various levels

Adjudicator preparation ensures consistent scoring across performances.
