How to Survive After being Stopped by the police

Bonus “and other lessons to master the game”.

E. NIKETA PARKER

E. Niketa Parker is a devoted husband, father and grandfather of 4 grandchildren. He is a Pastor of Living Waters Ministries and part of the largest Pentecostal Denominations in the world, The Church of God in Christ. He currently serves as the Superintendent of the Southeast Birmingham District under the Georgia Northern 2nd Jurisdiction.

He served as a veteran of the USAF and a graduate of Troy University with a major in Criminal Justice. After graduating from college he started a career with the Department of Corrections for the State of Florida and is a graduate of the Fl. Dept. of Corrections Academy.

He served as the 1st black male Probation and Parole Officer in Okaloosa County, Florida. He also served as the 1st black drug Court Officer for that county which garnered grave reviews for having a successful program and cutting the recidivism for repeat offenders.
