Late Lewis: Beyond Narnia

Friday 22nd November.
Doors 7.00. Show at 7.45. Ends 9.00.
No interval

"'Late Lewis: Beyond Narnia' considers Lewis's writings from 1960 to his death in 1963. Works by Lewis, and earlier works by his wife Joy Davidman, are presented through readings and drama. Particular consideration is given to Lewis's reports on his crisis of faith and to his (often uplifting) views on death and dying"

£10.00 and £5.00 concessions.

By Chris Darcy.

Lena Nowakowski is in a pickle. After her move from Poland, all she wants is to settle in to her new house at Pettigo. Trouble is half the house is in NI and half in the Republic of Ireland. And she's plagued by wazzicks on a cross border basis.
