ANN HOLLIS

Born in Tuscaloosa, AL, in 1959, Ann grew up in a log cabin in the woods, overlooking a lake. Her parents were professors at the University of Alabama so, of course, she attended Bama, earning a degree in physics. After earning a commission in the Air Force (AF) in 1982, she went to Texas A&M for a year of training to be a weather officer.

Please Join Us!

Continuing in our efforts to support women in women's sports, we are going to attend a U of A Women's Softball game on Friday, April 24, at 6 pm.

We will be sitting in the General Admission section. We encourage you to get your tickets quickly as these games are selling out.

We hope you'll join us. It's always a very fun time.

Hi Fellow Members!

We've officially decided to rename the club the "Tucson Revolutionary Women" and start every meeting with a group hug and a vegan snack bar...

APRIL FOOLS!! We're staying 100% Tucson Republican Women — red, white, blue and proud as ever! Thanks for laughing with us.

Your hard work and dedication are the real reason this club keeps growing stronger every month.

Happy April Fool's, ladies! Let's keep making Arizona better.
