MERRY CHRISTMAS!

For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6

Happy
Hanukkah

Wishing you love, light and peace

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the night
TRW ladies were in anticipation of a ray of Trump light.
As 2025 approaches, we know it to be true
The USA is returning to the red, white and blue.

As we prepare for our programs, our meetings will be fun.
We will spend the year learning and playing in the Arizona sun,
We will not forget our mission to recruit, train, and elect
We will support our great candidates, and those we select.

Until our next meeting on January twenty-seven,
Let's inaugurate President Trump; it will be like we are in heaven.
Let's all take a break and remember not just our political call,
But the reason for the season--Merry Christmas to you all!

I'm looking forward to being your secretary this year!

I'm hoping this year the minutes can be relevant and thorough the way Joyce did these past years, and also looking for the best way to get them to you.

As the traumatic year of 2024 comes to a close, let us reflect upon the divine intervention of God witnessed in Pennsylvania. Were it not for His Grace, we would certainly be facing a future with much more uncertainty and fear.

As a nation, we can give thanks for the outcome of our November election, a miracle which has granted our children and grandchildren a future of hope and prosperity. The attempted assassination on President-elect Trump has made us all more aware of our consistent vulnerability to our surroundings. God protected Donald Trump with a shield of armor. Good overcame Evil.

In conclusion, allow me to quote a few words from President Ronald Reagan:

"Let us thank God for life and the blessings He has put before us. High among them are our families, our freedom, and the opportunities of the new year".

Let us make the most of those opportunities.

May your Christmas be MERRY and BLESSED and may 2025 be our nation's brightest year ever!
