

The Redline

February 2, 2026

2026 has barely begun, and TRW is off and running. We had a wonderful first luncheon with 52 in attendance. Congressmen Ciscomani and Schweikert and the mine inspector, Les Presmyk, were our speakers. Congressman Ciscomani installed our officers. We also had several candidates present. I know I learned many things at the meeting that I hadn't known before.

Just as a reminder, TRW does not endorse any candidate in a contested race. However, our members are encouraged to assist the candidates of their choice in any way they choose, such as door knocking or writing postcards, just not in an official capacity as a TRW member. Once the primary is over TRW will support all candidates as we move forward to the general election.

February 4th is national Girls and Women in Sports day. TRW stands for Women's sports and that only women should play in women's sports. Yesterday a group of us attended a U of A women's basketball game. To our dismay the ladies were unable to take home the win. We are planning several more of these outings throughout the year, such as volleyball and softball. If you are unable to attend the games with us, please consider supporting the teams when you can. These ladies work really hard at their chosen sports and often do not get the support or recognition they deserve.

I am working on filling committee positions for the next 2 years. If, as a member, you are interested in helping the club in some capacity, please reach out to me.

- Became a PC and a State Committeeman
- Worked for Jesse Kelly for Congress
- Attended NFRW convention in Philadelphia

ROSLYN BAYARD

I was born and raised in San Diego, California. I just had fun growing up and didn't know, or care, about politics. I remember my parents talking about the president, Mr. Truman, and I remember when Dwight Eisenhower was elected. That was when my dad had just come home from the war.
