

THE EXPERIMENTER - ETHICS

1. FLASHBACK QUESTION- Why was Stanley Milgram personally interested in studying obedience?
2. When and where does this take place? _____
3. Why were the lab coats gray? _____
4. What is one-word combo the man gets incorrect in the opening test? _____
5. What does Milgram teach at Yale? _____
6. Give one way he describes the course:
7. What 3-word phrase is often given to the teacher when the teacher does not like what is happening:
" _____ "
8. Silence is interpreted as a _____
9. Describe how the teacher in the yellow shirt acts during his debriefing:
10. What does the teacher in plaid say he was feeling during the testing?
11. In your opinion, what is the purpose of the elephant?
12. How do they make sure the "teacher" always picks the teacher card?
13. You see Mr. Williams, the Dutchman, refuse to shock him. He said he came on his own free will and questioned why he did not have a choice. What also influenced his choice to refuse?
14. What were two adjustments they made to the experiment:
 - a.
 - b.
15. Supposedly, how many volts was the last switch? _____
16. Name the psychologist Milgram worked with at Princeton: _____
17. Not a single person got up and _____

18. Name 3 characteristic responses to the test:
 ● * *
19. What TV show are they watching? He mentions it helped influence his testing:
20. Briefly explain the "Lost Letters" experiment:
21. What announcement does Milgram make and how do students respond?
 c. ANNOUNCEMENT:
 d. RESPONSE:
22. Many psychologists predicted that _____ in _____ would deliver the shocks across the board. A factor that was off by 500.
23. _____ said they were glad to be a part of the experiment. _____ had neutral feelings. _____ reported negative feelings.
24. What was the purpose of the scene where he met with the three women?
25. What department does he become the head of at City University in NYC?
26. What assignment does he give his students?
27. What percentage of people was obedient? _____
28. What was their next experiment? (Hint- it involves the sky.)
29. How does the woman on the street react to Milgram?
30. What is the name of the teleplay Milgram is reading? _____
31. Who plays Milgram in the teleplay? _____
32. What was the "teachers" response when asked "Is there anything the man could have said to keep you from administering the shocks?"
33. A French recreation of the experiment got 80% obedience. How did they achieve the higher obedience score?
34. What school shows his obedience experiment every year? _____
35. In your opinion, are we puppets? Explain your answer.

36. The quote to the right is mentioned a couple of times in the film. How can it relate to psychology?

