The main arena auction of chickens, rabbits, pigeons, game birds, waterfowl, animals, and equipment is held outdoors so dress according to the weather.

Please note the following expectations of people attending the auction:

- ◆ HOAGBA acts as an agent for the consignors and makes no guarantees nor will HOAGBA be responsible for injuries or fatalities of animals or birds or for the injury or loss of property of those attending the auction. All animals and birds including baby chicks are sold as is, where is, buy them and like! Once they are sold they are the buyer's responsibility to pay for them and take care of them. HOAGBA will not give refunds for dead adult birds, chicks, ducklings or goslings.
- ◆ Back alley selling of "No Sale" birds and animals is not permitted. HOAGBA needs the commissions to offset auction expenses which continue to go up.
- ◆ No one except the consignor or a member of the HOAGBA Executive Board may open a cage for any reason once the consignment process has been completed. Sick, injured, or dead animal/ bird will be removed by the owner or a member of the EB.
- ◆ Parents are responsible for their children's safety - running on the fairgrounds & jumping off the bleachers is a no no!
- ◆ Dogs are not allowed on the fairgrounds unless they are service dogs.

Method of Payment: Credit Cards (4 % Convenience Fee), Cash, or Check with a bank letter of credit. Sorry for the inconvenience, but it took over four years to collect through the Johnson Cty. DA's office on a bad check written in September, 2019 by someone known to HOAGBA!!

Spring Auction Date—March 22, 2025
