Kansas Statutes require all poultry, and game birds, regardless of their state of origin, to be PT tested before being offered for sale at any public sale. Test papers must be presented at check-in. Out of state sellers must present an import permit. Call the KS Animal Health Dept at 785-564-6700 to obtain an import permit 3 weeks before the auction. Testing information is posted on the club web site: <https://hoagbagardnerauction.org>

All birds and animals sold at the auction are intended for use as food or fiber/feathers and for improving the breeding and management of the species as per AWA regulations.

New APHIS/USDA Caging Guidelines must be followed or the auction staff cannot accept your consignments. This means NO laundry baskets or cages with solo cups, oleo tubs or cut-off soda bottles being used for feed and water. The complete guidelines are posted on the club's web site and facebook page.

For info. about the auction or to consign, call 913-879-2587 or go to: <https://hoagbagardnerauction.org> or

Consignments will be posted on the club's facebook page and web site before the auction.

The cage goes with the bird/birds or animal/s in the cage.

Method of Payment: Cash or Check with a bank letter of credit. Credit cards (A 3 % charge will be added to the purchase amount. (If you purchase $575.00 in birds, etc., your final cost would be $592.25 with the 3% charge included.)

Buyers will need a driver's license and their vehicle license plate number (new USDA ruling) when they pay out.

Auction Office: Open Class Building which is the building on the left as you enter the fairgrounds. It is directly across from the building we have used in the past.

Cancelling the Auction is NOT an Option: This is an advertised event with potential buyers traveling in from distant states. HOAGBA has no way of notifying all potential attendees of a cancellation so the auction will be held regardless of the weather. The main arena auction of chickens, rabbits, pigeons, game birds, waterfowl, animals, and equipment is held outdoors so dress according to the weather.

Please note the following expectations of people attending the auction:

- ◆ HOAGBA acts as an agent for the consignors and makes no guarantees nor will HOAGBA be responsible for injuries or fatalities of animals or birds or for the injury or loss of property of those attending the auction. All animals and birds including baby chicks are sold as is, where is! Once they are sold they are the buyer's responsibility to pay for them and take care of them. HOAGBA will not give refunds for dead adult birds, chicks, ducklings or goslings.
- ◆ Back alley selling of "No Sale" birds and animals is not permitted. HOAGBA needs the commissions to offset auction expenses which continue to increase.
- ◆ No one except the consignor or a member of the HOAGBA Executive Board may open a cage for any reason once the consignment process has been completed. Sick, injured, or dead animal/ bird will be removed by the owner or a member of the EB.
- ◆ Parents are responsible for their children's safety - running on the fairgrounds & jumping off the bleachers is a no no!
- ◆ Dogs are not allowed on the fairgrounds unless they are service dogs.

The Fall Auction is September 13, 2024
