HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of COWETA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

1. I look so lonely though I have the company of many. I share space with many famous people. Nearly two hundred, I stay serene even with noise around me all day & night. Looking at me brings tears to many eyes, even though I am beautiful. Some seemingly stay forever, while others can't wait to leave. I am ?

ANSWER
Oak Hill Cemetary

2. I am the center of attention! For over 100 years, people have been flocking to me daily in good times & bad, for better or worse; I keep track of their trials and tribulations. Even Santa stops to visit me. I look great; especially after my 'face lift.' In Georgia there are 159 of me, but "I'm the best looking." Don't you agree? Some say, I'm not hip because of my name. What is my name?

ANSWER
Coweta County Courthouse

3. My name is from Scotland, like my 'famous kin's name.' I am among the oldest in my county, from the 1800s. Though I've had many kinds 'stay' with me, quite a few have been upright and righteous. Some years ago, I was a big reno project! Since, I've been treated like the historic treasure I am! Outside I'm plainly lovely; inside I keep many stories including those of my 'famous kin!. What am I?

ANSWER
Erskine Caldwell Museum
The Little Manse

4. A 'little birdie' told me many voices nest around my rafters. I stand proudly as a century plus 'senior" to all my peers. Some say I am I'm old fashioned. Others say that's part of my charm! 'Once upon a time,' one man found me to be a haven for himself and some of his imaginary critters. If you try, you can still hear tales of those critters drown out the traffic noise around me. Known far and wide, I am connected to two others in these clues! Who am I?

ANSWER
Wrens Nest Museum

5. I was one of many a hundred years ago! Now I'm just one lonely, beautiful, reminder of roaring old times! In my youth, I was nicknamed something like "trash." Can you believe! I was falling down, with no hope. Some wonderful people rescued me many years later, in honor of one lady who made me famous. Now I am as pretty as a southern belle! Fiddle dee dee! Two of these clues have ties to me. Who am I?

ANSWER
Margaret Mitchell Museum
"The Dump"

Bonus I tie three clues above together! I follow them. I meander all around west Georgia and beyond. I hear unforgettable, enduring, poetic voices from the twentieth century; millions 'novel' at them. To follow me, travel across several states, or just curl up with a few books! Like the clues, I am "truly Southern!" My name is?

Southern Literary Trail
