16. I am a landmark with a museum and truly a treasure! Want to find gold? Bet you don't know West Georgia has one of these! I have genuinely real buried 'gold.' I'm even in a place whose name means "rich town." You would think by my name I might be located near something Callaway. I'm further north. What is my name?

ANSWER
Pine Mountain Gold Mine & Museum

17. Built in 1849, I was left in ruins during the Civil War. My walls remain and friends have worked hard to make me an attraction. At least I am in a "sweet" setting with lots of greenery and 'water' around me. Originally, whirring filled my halls, and what I made 'wrapped' around many. When built, I was named after a place far away. My name now includes the place in which I am located. Who am I?

ANSWER
Sweetwater Creek State Park Mill

18. I am in a district of buildings like me! We had similar purposes but made different products. The first was built in 1847. We sat along area that ran through the countryside like a snake. A village sprang up around us, which even had a baseball team. We took a real hit during the Civil War but were rebuilt. Now we are a shored-up shambles. People still love to visit! You will be welcome too; promise we won't 'ban' you!

ANSWER
Historic Banning Mills (Snake Creek)

19. I am surrounded by 3 cities or towns and 18 named communities without their own city councils. My namesake is a revolutionary officer and a governor. One of the most visited places was named for a famous inventor and American leader who would 'electrify' you! It was established in 1770. Lumberjacks harvest timber regularly around me. Have you ever 'heard' of me?

ANSWER
Heard County (Franklin)

20. Almost always, we are named together as though we are one. We are two separate places. We had large similar businesses, related to one another in our heyday. One of us was named after brothers of the largest business in town, and one of us was a combined name of two last names. Though we have historic places throughout, we have lots of new residents. People still 'cotton' and 'mill' around us. What's that name you hear us called by?

ANSWER
Arnco-Sargent Coweta County

Bonus Once I was daily treasure for people in my village! I had no value elsewhere, but in town I got you all the necessities at the company store. I have my own pretty design. D.C. didn't mint me. I can't be traded now; just a fun curiosity. In my day if someone was given many, they'd say 'merci beaucoup' to you; that's thank you very much! You can guess my name from just this clue; did you? Name me.
