HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of COWETA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

1. Cows, pigs, chickens, horses, kids, grown-ups, plants, all get fed from me. I've been around since the 1800s. My name is a well-known, fine old family one in Coweta County. Who am I?

ANSWER

2. Sitting on a high spot, I have kids of many ages come to me seeking knowledge. For over a century, I have seen kids commence wiser lives; some of these kids became famous, you would know their names. Who am I?

ANSWER

3. We love the park! My family seems to have endless fun! We like twirling in the wind. Though we seem to be many making merriment, still, we are just one. What am I?

ANSWER

4. In many cases, people like coming to see me. However, there are some who dread seeing me. For more than a hundred years, I've been at the center of many important events and ceremonies. I've been here so long that I needed and received a 'face lift' a few years ago. What am I?

ANSWER

5. Bravely remembering so many young people, I offer shade and comfort for those who like to linger with me to reflect on memories. I am proud to give a pause for those who pass by. What am I?

ANSWER

B_{onus} Neither rain, nor sleet, nor dark of night....I will make sure my bags are ready to be picked up without stopping! Don't get snagged on me; I'm sharp! Listen out for a whistle! Conduct yourself carefully; just follow the tracks.
