11. I am not a vacation, but I sound like one. People say I am old fashioned from days gone by when they see me because I am one over 150 years old. I am grand and imposing, and my 'kin folks' are famous! I am beautiful; I am not musical. I am nationally recognized as being very important. Who am I?

ANSWER

12. Welcoming friends, new and old, I stand tallest of all! Many look up to me. This year I turn two hundred! For me, time is my friend, and I keep lots of it; it is my constant companion! Though I am grayish, I have had a facelift; I have to stay 'pretty' because I am the center of attention! Who am I

ANSWER

13. I was the first in my county, over two hundred years ago! I am often overlooked and bypassed because I am small. Some unusual visitors have spent time with me recently. Though they look other worldly, they fit right in with the rust and relics in my old 'haunts' from cotton and peach days of long ago. No telling what you might see in the shade! Whatever you do 'don't go in the shed!' What in this world am I?

ANSWER

14. Once nearly dead, now I'm feeling lively! So many visitors enjoy walking with me! I am a bit 'old timey' looking, but I 'dress up' with character! Celebrities even come to visit me! All the time I am the 'main' attraction you can visit me any time, day or night. Who am I?

ANSWER

15. I am related to one above. My most famous 'friend' is a legend. He started his practice with me. A kind man, later thought to be a bit 'wild like the west, ' he left everyone with a 'smile' while spending time with me. Our relationship is marked. You have to go up a 'hill' to find me. Who am I?

ANSWER

Bonus About 140 years ago, I was a shining star in my town! Many flocked to spend the evening with me. I was a 'first class act.' My patrons were sometimes 'bawdier' than my name suggests. I am beautiful now, but not too 'highfalutin'! Don't wear yourself out on my 'hill' getting to me! What is my name?
