11. Some say I look like a Queen! Though stately and grand, I humbly welcome my followers every week. My followers are faithful and make joyful noise while spending time with me. I am very accessible; even though it seems required, no bridge must be traveled to reach me. I am more than a century old, and I pray I continue for another 100 years! What am I?

ANSWER

12. We are stately sentinels standing strong like granite. We are guardians of the memories of heroic figures. We stand in the center of activity silently reminding all who pass by of those who defended peace in our daily lives. Who are we?

ANSWER

13. I am a keeper of the past. I am not just sitting on my 'couch!' I am very busy telling all who want to listen stories of those I have seen pass through all my days and before, more than a century of days! Fitting to my first owner, I am well furnished and have memorabilia of my hometown! Who am I?

ANSWER

14. My memories quickly spin up long days of hard, sweaty work. Life for those in my world centered around me! Those who worked with me had all they needed close at hand. Their daily lives we supplied with all they needed through me. Not an easy life, but for those who 'cotted' to me, they were provided both necessities and even some entertainment. Now I serve a different, still storied use! What am I?

ANSWER

15. I started out fielding fun! Long ago, those who needed a real break from their hard work and cares came from nearby for relaxation. Happily, they were able to unwind; they found real relief; their rest and even recreation was a 'home run.' Even though a 'smith' claims me now, I was a 'no work' zone originally. Who am I?

ANSWER

Bonus Around and around we whirled! Our arms moved so quickly, you could hardly see how we worked! Many stories revolve around us; our handlers had to be very careful not to get caught up in our yarns! Who are we?
