HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of COWETA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

6. Pioneers were my patrons. They set great store in my stock. Kids spent time with me after school. My name was made famous by one of those kids later in life. Though we no longer serve our patrons, our presence is still seen. What am I?

ANSWER

7. Faithfully standing for more than one hundred years, I lift spirits. One of my leaders influenced his famous son. I am off the main road, sheltered by mighty oaks in the country. What am I?

ANSWER

8. Everything old is new again. Back of the stacks, I love to share stories of old times. Remnants of days gone in Coweta shine within. You can find me easily; I'm centrally located. Who am I?

ANSWER

9. Once upon a time, I was the center of attention. People came to see Hollywood on display. My house was full including the balcony. Now I'm thrifty. My shine has worn thin. If you look carefully, you can see I still have my shape from my glamour days. Who am I?

ANSWER

10. On the right side of the tracks, I am very useful. I used to be a favorite of farmers and merchants; I handled their load. Now I am a favorite for festivities and a favorite of my town. I am such a historic jewel, I won an award! What am I?
