HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of WEST GEORGIA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

16. I am in a small town named for a railroad executive, even though it sounds colorful. Like many of my kind I was a focal point of my town originally when I was established over 150 years ago. My followers are solemn; they look up to me. I have many original features. My "stains" are admired and revered. Sometimes people think of me underwater. What am I?

ANSWER
WHITESBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

17. I was a great American! I loved my hometown! Though I left all of that for others to see, I know you will love my hometown if you visit me here. My golf clubs, my ball glove, my books, my pictures are all here to see! Though I traveled around, I 'nailed my feet to the ground' right here. What am I?

ANSWER
HOMETOWN HERITAGE MUSEUM:
A TRIBUTE TO LEWIS GRIZZARD

18. Though I am in a place that sounds lonely, I have visitors like clockwork! I am small and pretty and over one hundred years old. My visitors sign praise when they see me! My builders were visionary; they spent time overseas in China! My name sounds like one, but actually represents two. Who am I?

ANSWER
ALLEN LEE
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
LONE OAK

19. It is hard to believe my keeper once lived inside my walls! I am scary to most! People avoided me over a hundred years ago when I was young. I held a captive audience upstairs in my former life! I am so beautiful now, my keepers welcome visitors to tell my story. Even Elvis would have 'rocked' me!. Who am I?

ANSWER
HEARD COUNTY
OLD JAIL
FRANKLIN

20. Many say, I am very grand! Even though I am loaded with gingerbread, you can't eat me. In my younger days, a hundred years ago, I was right in style! I have my ups and down, and a lot of wear. With lots of care, I now look like my young self! I am a stand out. Visitors love to stay with me; they sip 'under' the gingerbread. I am still a stand out in my town! What am I?

ANSWER
GRAND HOTEL
HOGANSVILLE

Bonus. Now resting under stately trees, I have a comfortable home. Being very old, about 140 years, I needed a 'pastoral' place! I 'came apart in pieces' when I came to my new home. All together my visitors find me very intriguing! One of my former keepers became very famous world-wide! Though I am 'little,' I leave a big and uplifting impression! Who am I?
