Friday, September 18, 2026. Follow these clues to get to the treasure in West Georgia! Clues lead to places and relics visible from the road and in public spaces. Please be considerate and careful as you travel and explore these destinations. Hunters can solve without travel to the sites. HINT: Search Fayette and Coweta counties For questions and help: morelandadventure.com and Facebook: morelandculturalartsalliance.
HUNT for the LOST TREASURE of COWETA is sponsored by the Moreland Cultural Arts Alliance, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect, foster, and promote the cultural arts and heritage of the Moreland community and to celebrate the writing of Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard.

Though I am named after a famous Italian, I am settled on Georgia soil!

ANSWER

11. Originally, I was located about one mile south of my present home. Many property owners donated to create me! I was planned a long time ago, in the 1800s! Though the reason for my placement no longer exists, many of my original 'members' still stand. You will find me fun and scenic when you go a 'tourin' around. What's my name?

Like many, I am pastoral and beautiful. Once farmers found me most productive. I've been around since the early 1800s. Though many left me standing in the 1930s, many have found my rural charm reason to want me recently. Originally, I was a quarter mile around from a train depot. Now I reach longer limits. Don't let looking for me 'dull' your senses! Can you name me?

ANSWER

12. I am a mid-century phenomenon! Though there are many with names very like mine, I was a rarity when I was designed. My designers made me beautiful and easy to follow. You will enjoy nature's beauty along the 'pathway' when looking for me! You won't have to use a horse and buggy as a cart to carry something home around me! Many consider me part of their home 'late in the day.' Others just stop by me to have some fun! What am I?

ANSWER

13. Being the oldest of my kind in my county, bet you hardly know my name. I am very, very small. I've been around since the mid 1800s! Many visit me! I am and have been a star! In my first heyday, I knew cotton and peaches like many around me. Some call me vintage and authentic to a time gone by. I've been a movie star because of my rust and old age everywhere. If you know a little 'red bird', it might tell you my name. Who am I?

ANSWER

14. I am over 100 years old! I was made and named by an old railroad! I reminded the railroad people of something in the 'old country, and that something is what they named me! Many live around me. My 'legacy' is on stage! It's no 'blarney!' When you stroll around me, you might even find shamrock! My name sounds like someone's first or last name. Luck of the Irish to you! Guess my name!

ANSWER

15. 'Time' for a break! 'Time' to start! 'Time' for all! It is 'time' to look up and see me! I am at the center of some much activity! I stood on my square of ground for more than 100 years. After a make over, I look as good as I did when I was built! I serve many purposes. I tower over others around me. Top of the hour, you will hear from me! Who am I?
